R.A.F. Bombers in Night Attack on Nazi-Held Europe

Follows Daylight Assaults on Invasion Coast by Strong Formations of Planes

LONDON, June 2 (Friday) (AP).—R.A.F. bombers blasted enemy-occupied territory for the second successive night last night, it was announced today, following assaults on the invasion coast by strong formations of medium bombers and fighters late Thursday afternoon.

Yesterday's daylight attacks were on a reduced scale following the previous night's smashing attack by R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. heavyweights on three key French centres and invasion coast targets.

Offensive patrols were flown in daylight by fighters of the British Second Tactical Air Force. In one of these a Heinkel III was shot down by long-range fighters, with the kill shared by a Canadian and a New Zealand pilot.

In a daylight foray yesterday over Northern France, Flt. Lieut. Tommy Anderson, Winnipeg, and his navigator, F.O. P. Huletsky, Montreal, destroyed a Dornier 217.

American medium bombers, with fighter escort, attacked military targets in Northern France.

Murky weather over the English Channel held the Allied daylight forces on the ground early in the day yesterday, but when it cleared later the tactical blows were resumed.

In early morning darkness a strong force of about 500 R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. heavyweights dropped probably more than 2,200 tons of bombs on freight yards in Trappes, Tergnier and Saumur, French railway towns vital to the Germans for routing supplies to their coastal areas.

Unspecified military objectives along the French coast also were pounded in darkness. The night operations, which included minelaying, cost the R.A.F. eight planes but all the Canadian bombers returned.

The night raiders spread out over a 200-mile front of Interior France to hit the rail centres, rated as three of the biggest being used for supplying the German invasion front: Tergnier, 75 miles northeast of Paris; Trappes, 16 miles southwest of Paris, and Saumur, 150 miles southwest of Paris.

Canadian heavy bombers of the Alouette, Goose, Bison, Moose, Lion, Snowy Owl and Thunderbird squadrons took part.

In another night operation the Allied Mediterranean air forces sent out heavy bombers which bombed the railroad tow tracks alongside the Danube River's iron gate canal on the Romanian-Yugoslav border.

Since the all-out campaign to disrupt communications in Western Europe began early in March, R.A.F., R.C.A.F. and American planes have carried out 246 attacks on 94 railroad targets.

From Europe Day by Day—

THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

LONDON, June 1. — Increased German resistance is being met by the Fifth Army as they approach the defence line running from Valmontone to the Tyrrhenian coast.

All available German troops are being put into this line with orders to hold, at all costs, this last strong bastion before Rome.

Months of labor have been spent in preparation of this line, and there is general agreement that a powerful Allied drive may be required to split it open.

All along its front the Fifth Army is exerting unremitting pressure night and day, with the determination to break down the enemy's resistance before he can achieve his intention of conducting an orderly retreat north of Rome.

At Valmontone the situation is unchanged and it is probable that the battle here has not even yet reached its height, says The Times' military correspondent.

It will be recalled there was a pause in the fighting in the Liri Valley between the breaching of the Gustav and Hitler Lines.

Formation of fresh artillery dumps and other preparations would be no less necessary at Valmontone.

It is around Campoleone and Lanuvio that the going has been the hardest. Lanuvio has been organized as a strong point, which will be very difficult to take by direct assault.

Kesselring is clearly hoping to hold this line for some days in order

Says Huge Allied Army In Africa

Reported Massed for Blow at the Riviera

LONDON, June 1 (AP).—A German military commentator asserted today that 15 Allied divisions—about 150,000 men—were massed in North Africa, ready to strike at the French or Italian Riviera when the signal for the invasion from the west is given in Britain.

The Germans were aware of plans for potentially powerful offensives from all sides.

From Britain, the great amphibious movement is not far off, said a Royal Navy officer, Admiral Sir William M. James, chief of naval information.

From the southeast, Marshal Tito, in an order of the day, called upon the Yugoslavs for an all-out decisive blow, "particularly now when the last blow of the Red Army and the Anglo-American Allied troops is approaching."

To the east, the Red Army was poised and waiting.

To the south, Allied troops were in sight of Rome's towers, and the Nazi commander begged for reserves from the ranks of those already guarding the invasion front.

In the Near East, Turkey was reported likely to move into the war when the Allies give the signal.

The Nazi military commentator for the German D.N.B. Agency pictured the island of Corsica transformed into a great springboard for a blow at Europe's south flank by the North Africa force, co-ordinated with an attack from Britain.

This force, he claimed, is composed of 10 infantry divisions and five tank divisions, which will "obviously be employed in the forthcoming large-scale attack on the Western European coasts." He spoke of concentrations of landing vessels in North African ports, and referred to the campaign in Italy as an Allied attempt to tie down as many German reserves as possible.

Strike Ties Up Transportation

ST. LOUIS, June 1 (AP).—Spontaneous share-the-ride was the only mass transportation available to several hundred thousand St. Louis office, factory and war workers today because of an unauthorized strike of 3,500 bus and street car operators.

Mayor Aloys P. Kaufmann said St. Louis was "substantially paralyzed," and added: "I earnestly insist the rights of a million people are paramount to the equities in any private dispute."

The strike developed suddenly during the night and became generally known to St. Louis only when citizens gathered at corner bus and street car stops this morning. Private automobiles were pressed into service and workers turned to trucks and even bicycles to get to their jobs.

General Pearkes Announces Campaign for Reinforcements

Intensification of active force recruiting which will require co-operation of all citizens in order to provide a stream of trained reinforcements for overseas, was announced yesterday by Major-General G. R. Pearkes, V.C., G.O.C.-in-C., Pacific Command.

The intensified campaign will run through the months of July and August and General Pearkes declared his determination to secure more than British Columbia's quota of the 48,000 men urgently needed this year for active service.

Civic and municipal authorities, service clubs, women's organizations, churches, labor organizations and community clubs will be enlisted to assist the campaign. At Pacific Command headquarters a central committee has been set up with General Pearkes as chairman and Major R. Mc Underwood as staff officer of the campaign. In the various areas, Brig. J. F. Preston, Maj.-Gen. H. N. Ganong, Col. Colin Ferrie and Col. Don B. Martin have been appointed regional chairmen.

Parades, military displays and tattoos, decoration of streets and store windows, radio, newspapers and public speakers will feature this intensification of recruiting.

General Pearkes has divided the objectives into three parts:

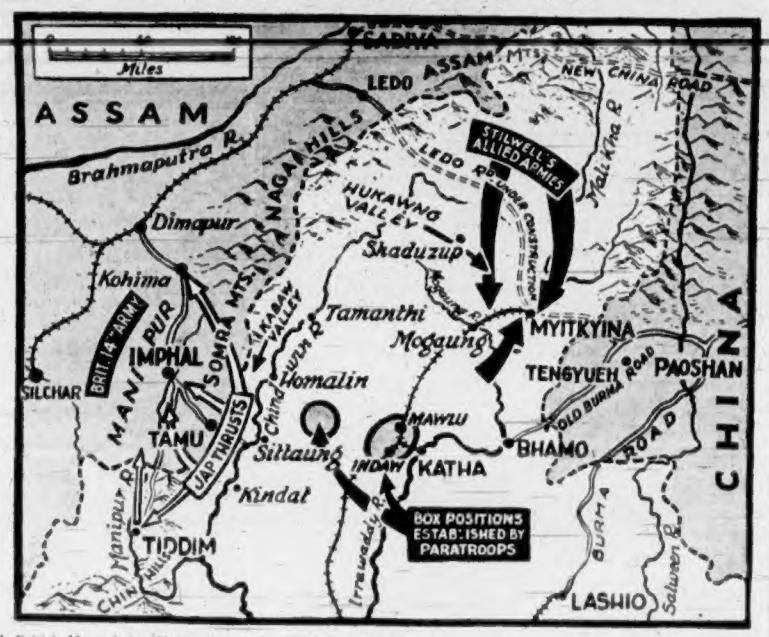

(1) Enlistment of active force soldiers from the public.

(2) Conversion of men called up under the N.R.M.A. to go active.

(3) Intensive campaign for Canadian Women's Army Corps to release men for overseas service.

Subasic Called By King Peter

LONDON, June 1 (AP).—King Peter of Yugoslavia today formally commissioned Dr. Ivan Subasic to form a new Coalition Government and appealed to the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes of his polyglot kingdom to lay aside their differences until peace "when they will be free to express their will."

Marshal Tito is reported slated to supplant Gen. Draja Mihailovic as commander of the Yugoslav armies fighting the German occupants.

Subasic is former Governor of Croatia and is regarded as friendly to Tito. He succeeds Bozidar Puric, whom Peter dismissed as Premier.

Allies Gain on Three Fronts

KANDY, Ceylon, June 1 (CP).—Allied gains on three Burma battlefronts were disclosed today in a communique from Southeast Asia command headquarters.

Malakawng, Japanese stronghold 15 miles north of Kamaing on the main road in the Mogaung Valley northwest of Myitkyina in North Burma, has been taken.

East of the Mogaung River a column of Chinese and American troops has established a new line south of Warong and Sharaw.

Meanwhile Allied forces have made satisfactory progress in attacks from north, south and west on Myitkyina, the main Japanese base in North Burma, although the Japanese are still fighting stubbornly.

At the western end of the front British and Indian troops have made good progress in their drive to clear the Japanese from the area east of Kanglatongbi, north and northeast of the Imphal Plain.

Fighter bombers and field and medium guns have given a terrific pounding to Church Knoll, last point of Japanese resistance on the eastern edge of Naga Village, north of Kohima, preparatory to an Allied attack.

Gurkhas occupied their objectives on Basha Hill and a point north of Church Knoll, but Punjabis established on Castle Hill to the south were forced back after penetrating a Japanese position.

Advancing ankle deep in mud the Allied troops are consolidating their gains on Kohima, where they have taken several enemy bunkers.

GIMLI, Man., June 1 (CP).—An R.C.A.F. training plane from No. 18 Service Flying Training School here, missing since a night flying exercise, was found late today north of nearby Woodland. The student-pilot was killed.

Next of kin have been notified and the airman's name will be released shortly.

John Curtin Pleads For Average Citizen

Prime Minister of Australia Makes Eloquent Address in House of Commons

OTTAWA, June 1 (CP).—The spokesman for a bastion of freedom in the Pacific, Prime Minister John Curtin of Australia, said in an address today that he looked beyond the war to continued collaboration of the British Commonwealth, the United States, Russia and China in maintaining peace.

Speaking without notes and sometimes with striking gestures, Mr. Curtin stood in the green chamber of the Canadian Commons and declared himself the spokesman of the common man in asking that the light of reason rather than the sword be the instrument of government.

A Labor man, he spoke with sadness of vast armies being taken from useful production to fight other vast armies, leaving their people at home to bear double burdens.

Quietly, precisely, he traced the development of German despotism, the movement of the Japanese "assassin in the dark," both of them evil forces against whom the war must be carried until they are "forever destroyed."

Sometimes his words were drowned in applause from the assembled Senators and Commoners, as when he spoke in admiration of the people of the United Kingdom and of the Russians.

Canadians had praised Australian fighting men, and this had been done "handsomely" by Prime Minister Mackenzie King and Gordon Graydon, Progressive Conservative House leader, who welcomed him.

But here in this place may I now pay tribute to what the Canadian fighting man did, to what the

Northern Fire Under Control

PRINCE GEORGE, B.C., June 1 (CP).—A forest fire between Gravelyard and Cluculz Lakes, 35 air miles west of here, was brought under control today by a crew of forty men and the operations of a bulldozer, E. W. Bassett, of Victoria, assistant forester in operations, reported on his return here tonight.

Without sleep for the three-day period during which the bush blaze was fought, Mr. Bassett reported that the fire had flashed through 500 acres in a swathe running north towards Cluculz Lake. Summer campers and settlers were forced to evacuate their cabins temporarily when a heavy pall of smoke rolled across the lake.

The bulldozer was used to batter a fire line through the bush around a 2,600-acre area.

Aerial operations were halted today by the smoke pall and supplies could not be relayed to fire fighting crews, but it is expected the food shortage can be remedied by Saturday.

Showers in the area have stopped and what little rain did fall on the blazing area was dissipated by the up-draft of hot air from scattered fires.

Oyster River Sale Involves $1,000,000

VANCOUVER, June 1 (CP).—H. R. MacMillan Co. has extended its logging operations with the purchase of the Batco outfit at Oyster River, Vancouver Island, it was learned today.

Sale was unofficially reported at $1,000,000.

KILLED IN ACTION

WINNIPEG, June 1 (CP).—Lieut. Lawrence Sherman, 23, of Winnipeg, has been killed in action with Canadian forces in Italy, it was learned today by his father, Archbishop L. R. Sherman, of Ruperts Land.

De Valera Has Margin of 14

DUBLIN, June 1 (CP-Reuter's).—Prime Minister Eamon de Valera's Fianna Fail Administration has been returned to power with an over-all majority of 14 in the Dail.

Final figures for last Tuesday's general election showed the standing was as follows:

Fianna Fail (Government)	76
Fine Gael (chief Opposition party)	30
Labor	8
National Labor	4
Farmers	9
Independents	11
Total	138

(A Dail—Eire's House of Commons—has been summoned to meet June 9.

De Valera called the election three weeks ago after a Government-sponsored transport bill was defeated in the Dail by one vote.

The Fianna Fail Administration was a minority Government since the general election of last June, holding only 67 of the 138 seats.

Eire's neutrality policy was not at stake in the election, which was fought on purely domestic issues.

Standing of the Dail after last year's election was:

Fianna Fail	67
Fine Gael	32
Labor	17
Farmers	14
Independents	8

Red Army in New Attack

LONDON, June 1 (AP).—The Red Army, launching successful counter-attacks today against the German drive north of Iasi in the Moldavian province of Romania, killed 800 Nazi soldiers and knocked out 17 tanks, Moscow announced tonight.

The broadcast Russian communique indicated that the action was on a smaller scale than in the two previous days, saying that 18 German tanks and 15 planes were destroyed during the day.

A previous report listed the day's enemy losses as 56 tanks and 110 planes. These figures were for Wednesday's fighting.

Berlin itself told in the German High Command communique of "tough enemy resistance and fierce counter-thrusts." A German propaganda broadcast also acknowledged that Soviet resistance had "stiffened considerably and said the Red Army was counter-attacking at some points to regain lost territory."

The Moscow communique stated that there were no essential changes on other sectors of the front.

Canadians Acquire Timber Subsidiaries

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1 (AP).—Puget Sound Pulp & Timber Co. has sold its Canadian timber subsidiaries to Canadian interests for $5,000,000 plus interest on deferred payments, President F. G. Stevenot announced today.

Under terms of the sale, the company has a 35-year option covering all exportable pulp timber produced on Crown grant lands included in the properties.

Canadians Advance to Point Overlooking Ferentino as Americans Pierce Nazi Lines

German Radio Indicates Big Town of Velletri Abandoned in Face of Pincers

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, June 2 (Friday) (AP).—Fifth Army troops have entered Velletri, a front-line dispatch said.

NAPLES, June 1 (CP).—The Allied threat to Rome mounted tonight after American formations pierced German defence positions and encircled Velletri, while Canadian formations of the British Eighth Army advanced from captured Frosinone to a point overlooking the town of Ferentino, eight miles farther northwest.

The Eighth Army's thrust along the Via Casilina beyond Frosinone took the Canadians to a point about 20 airline miles from American Fifth Army forces just south of the enemy strongpoint of Valmontone, nine miles northeast of Velletri and 21 miles east of Rome.

British units of the Fifth Army operating on the extreme left flank of the Allied front pressed northward along a road leading through Ardea to Rome, and fast-traveling French formations drove the scattered enemy forces out of the Lepini Mountain area lying between Frosinone and the Alban Hills.

American units of the Fifth Army, in a spectacular nighttime advance, encircled Velletri on the Appian Way 16 miles southeast of Rome, and captured a high ridge on the Alban Hills from which they could see the dome of St. Peter's.

Without specific details, a field dispatch filed at 8.35 p.m. said: "American troops fighting in the Velletri sector of the Alban Hills have made new gains tonight."

The original penetration was made on Wednesday night.

The German radio indicated the big town of Velletri already has been abandoned, but there was no official Allied confirmation.

The Velletri garrison was caught between American troops holding Monte Artemisio, two miles north and northwest of the town, and the main Allied striking force fighting its way into the town from the south and east.

Allied troops tonight were reported moving steadily through the breach in the Nazi wall made in last night's stab, consolidating their positions despite violent opposition from enemy flame-throwers, artillery and tanks. Allied Headquarters described

Historic Cathedral Swept by Flames

LONDON, June 1 (CP).—Fire swept the historic cathedral at Rouen, France, tonight after an explosion nearby, the Berlin radio reported.

The cathedral bells, including the famous Joan d'Arc bell weighing 20 tons, were said to have melted in the fire.

Puppet in Power in Bulgaria

Nazis Apparently Take Over Country

LONDON, June 1 (AP).—Bulgaria apparently has been taken over by the Germans through a puppet regime in the same manner that they assumed control of Hungary, another wavering satellite, last March.

A Trans-ocean dispatch broadcast tonight by the Berlin radio reported the formation of a new Sofia Government headed by Ivan Bagrianov, 53-year-old former Minister of Agriculture and one-time adjutant of the late King Boris, as Premier and Foreign Minister.

Bagrianov is one of the most pro-Axis of Bulgaria's politicians.

The Trans-ocean report lifted a silence which had cloaked Bulgaria since the resignation of Premier Dobri Bojilov's Cabinet under two-way pressure, from Berlin to increase its war contribution and from Moscow to get out of the conflict or suffer the consequences.

Since Bojilov's fall last week neutral reports have said the Germans poured troops into the country and took over command of the Bulgarian Army to integrate it into defence against the anticipated new Russian offensive. Dissident army leaders were reported to have fled.

A Hungarian news agency broadcast said various decrees "concerning the organization of industrial production" were prepared and "shopping hours were fixed for Jews" by Premier Doeme Sztojoy's Hungarian Cabinet, Thursday.

End to Walkout Of U.S. Logging Workers Looms

PORTLAND, June 1 (AP).—A probable end to the walkout of 17,000 to 18,000 Northwest International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.) lumber and logging workers loomed tonight when the executive board announced here it would ask immediate return of all absent union workers.

The announcement came as fears were rising that the continuing walkout of C.I.O. boom men would jeopardize operations of mill to which A.F.L. workers returned yesterday. Only a few days' supply of logs was on hand in booms of most Northwest mills.

Until the announcement tonight, the I.W.A. had refused to recommend return of the men who left when the United States National War Labor Board refused to grant wage increases.

Japs Gain in Three Drives

CHUNGKING, June 1 (AP).—The Japanese, in fierce fighting along a broad 120-mile front, have advanced in three major drives against the Hunan Province city of Changsha by-passing the Chinese stronghold of Changteh, 100 miles to the northwest, the High Command announced tonight.

The enemy gained in heavy fighting southeast of Changteh and both east and west of the Canton-Hankow Railway along the Milo River front, about 40 miles north of Changsha.

Apparently intent upon cutting off reinforcements from the west, Japanese amphibious troops crossed from the north shore of Tungting Lake south of Nanhsien, stabbing into the rice-growing area and by-passing east of Changteh.

The Japanese crossed the Mil River east of the railway route, and fighting continued in the vicinity of Kwosi, only 42 miles north of Changsha, which, evacuated of all civilians except volunteer, braced itself for its fourth bloody battle of the Sino-Japanese war.

Think Home Army May Be Drafted

TORONTO, June 2 (Friday) (CP).—The Globe and Mail in an Ottawa dispatch today said "increasingly critical manpower shortages and the imminence of invasion operations together have spread the feeling in Parliament that the Government will soon invoke the Mobilization Act and make some 50,000 high-category personnel of the Home Defence Army subject to service on overseas battlefronts."

The dispatch said Defence Minister Ralston has stated repeatedly that the Home Defence Army stood as potential reinforcements.

New College Principal Is Dr. J. M. Ewing

Appointment of Dr. John Morton Ewing, Vancouver Normal School, to the principalship of Victoria College was confirmed at a meeting of the City School Board yesterday evening. The appointment was made with the consent and approval of the Provincial Department of Education and of the University of British Columbia Board of Governors.

Dr. Ewing's appointment carries the rank of associate professor, and he will lecture in psychology. His salary will be $4000 a year.

The only outside man discussed for the post, Dr. Ewing was one of the five original men considered for this important educational position. Others were: Dr. William Robbins, English professor at Victoria College; Prof. E. S. Farr, assistant to the principal, and H. L. Smith, principal of Victoria High School. Prof. J. A. Cunningham, registrar, who had been invited to allow his name for the post, had withdrawn.

Dr. Ewing has been on the staff of the Provincial Normal School, Vancouver, for the past 14 years. He was born in Nazareth, Palestine, and received his early education at George Watson's College, Edinburgh University. He came to Canada in 1910, graduating from Queen's Uni-

Police Salary Impasse to Go Before Governor in Council

The impasse between the City Council and the Police Commission over salary increases for the police department, as a result of which members of the city police force are without their monthly pay cheques due May 31, continues.

The situation arose when the City Council voted a general 6 per cent increase, and the Police Commission, on a split vote, voted a 10 per cent increase. Efforts by the council to make the Police Commission reconsider their decision were unsuccessful.

The city's finance committee discussed the situation yesterday, and after consideration decided by unanimous vote to recommend to the City Council that all appeal be made to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council against the stand of the Police Commission in granting the 10 per cent salary increase.

Commenting on the situation following the finance committee meeting, Mayor Andrew McGavin said: "The City Council budgeted for a 6 per cent increase, and the Police Commission, on a split vote, with Aldermen Mrs. M. D. Christie and B. J. Ganden in favor and myself against, voted a 10 per cent increase for that department.

"According to the Municipal Act, the Police Commission has full power to set the salaries and increments of the police department. The 10 per cent increase in salary voted for the police means that other civic employees who are getting 6 per cent are receiving 4 per cent less than the police.

"This, in my opinion, will cause unrest among civic employees, and is not in the best interest of civic management. It also tends to bring additional hardships on the taxpayers."

Although the Municipal Act gives the Police Commission power to set the salaries for its own department, the City Council, which provides the funds, has the right of appeal to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council if it does not approve the schedule adopted.

Opposition Member Claims Subsidy Payments "Racket"

OTTAWA, June 1 (CP).—H. H. Hatfield (Progressive Conservative, Victoria-Carleton) said tonight in the Commons that 80 per cent of the $800,000 paid by the Federal Government last year on potatoes was paid without justification.

Mr. Hatfield said there was "no justification" for the payment of a subsidy except on potatoes imported prior to last June 10. About $100,000 had been paid in subsidies up to that date.

"After June 10 last year you could have bought all kinds of potatoes," he said. "The payment of subsidies developed into a racket."

The subsidy was paid when the price of potatoes went up, but was not paid when the prices went down. This was tackling the problem in reverse.

Douglas Abbott, parliamentary assistant to Finance Minister Ilsley, said the subsidy was paid to permit the consumer to buy potatoes at ceiling prices. Practically no potatoes were available in Canada when payment of the subsidy was decided upon.

Earlier, Opposition members urged that the Government make public the report of the Prices Stabilization Corporation investigators, who investigated the payment of subsidies on potatoes last year to firms and producers.

Speaking during resumed study of Finance Department's war appropriation estimates, the members said it was reported that some firms and producers had obtained the subsidies, while others had not. Some had been paid the subsidy and later were ordered to refund it.

Mr. Abbott said the report of the investigators was not the type of document which should be produceable. It was not proper that a detailed report of an investigation to a Government be produced.

MUST NOT EXTEND BUREAUCRACY

Gordon Graydon, Progressive Conservative House leader, said a New Brunswick paper had reported one firm seemed able to get subsidies for producers, while others appeared unable to do so.

He said Mr. Abbott must do more than say the report of the special investigators must not come to light. A bureaucratic principle must not be extended to the point where irregularities might be concealed.

Even the governmental representatives appeared not to have seen the investigators' report. The House should be given the report in detail.

T. C. DOUGLAS RESIGNS SEAT

Examination of the estimates was resumed shortly after Prime Minister John Curtin of Australia addressed a joint session of the Senate and the Commons in the spacious Commons Chamber.

At the start of the official sitting, Speaker J. A. Glen announced he had received the resignation of T. C. Douglas (C.C.F., Weyburn), who will lead his party in the Saskatchewan general provincial election, June 15. Fisheries Minister Bertrand announced the extension of construction subsidies to smaller-type Atlantic fishing vessels.

Navy Minister Macdonald said the matter of increasing the clothing allowance to discharged service personnel was under consideration.

Mr. Abbott said the Government decided to pay the subsidy last year when potatoes were in short supply. The subsidy was first offered on imported potatoes, but when new Canadian potatoes began arriving on the market the subsidy was extended to cover them.

The subsidy had been hard to administer because of the fluctuations in the market price of potatoes.

H. H. Hatfield (Progressive Conservative, Victoria-Carleton) said it appeared one shipper in Nova Scotia had a monopoly on subsidies. Some 17 or 18 other shippers had not received the subsidy.

Mr. Abbott said that subsidies this year will total an estimated $115,500,000. They would cover various food products, clothing and other articles.

May Maintain Extensive Navy

VANCOUVER, June 1 (CP).—Canada probably will maintain a relatively extensive navy after the war, Commodore E. R. Brock, O.B.E., commanding officer of reserve divisions, R.C.N.V.R., said in an interview here today.

Commodore Brock, highest-ranking officer in the Volunteer Reserve, is making a tour of recruiting and training centres between Halifax and Victoria.

"If Canada wishes to take a place in world affairs, she should maintain a navy commensurate with her commerce," he said, in discussing the navy's postwar picture.

Randolph New Head of I.T.U.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 1 (CP).—Woodruff Randolph, of Chicago, secretary-treasurer of the International Typographical Union, was elected president of the I.T.U. in its election May 17, the board of electors of the union said today in its official report.

The proposition to reaffiliate with the American Federation of Labor and the proposition to reduce the pension and mortuary assessment carried, but the count has not yet been completed.

Larry R. Taylor, of Dallas, Tex., defeated Clarence J. Desper, of Washington, D.C., incumbent, for first vice-president. Elmer Brown, of New York, defeated Thomas A. Holland, incumbent, and Oliver Walton, of Spokane, Wash., for second vice-president. Jack Gill, of Cleveland, O., received a plurality for secretary-treasurer, but lacked a majority, over W. Ward, of New York.

Elected as delegates to the American Federation of Labor were: John W. Austin, of Oakland, Calif.; Harold H. Clark, of Columbus, O.; Tillman K. Garrison, of Seattle, Wash.; John Simons, of New York, and Robert M. Kirkpatrick, of Dunellen, N.J.

Oppose Japanese And Doukhobors

VANCOUVER, June 1 (CP).—A strong stand against Japanese and Doukhobors, against exploitation of Victoria Cross winners, and the urging of adequate rehabilitation and pension services for returned men are demanded in resolutions to be presented at the Provincial Convention of the Canadian Legion opening here tomorrow.

More than 200 delegates from throughout the Province will attend the meeting. The Dominion Convention of the Legion will open here Sunday.

Alex Walker, of Calgary, Dominion president, said on his arrival here today that the national convention will emphasize in its discussions the problems and future of Canada's new war veterans.

To Hold Hearings On Lumber Wages

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP).—The United States War Labor Board today informed the Northwest Council of the Lumber and Sawmill Workers' Union (A.F.L.) that it is prepared to hold hearings beginning here on June 12, to consider whether it should review its previous denial of a wage increase for lumber workers of the Pacific area.

George W. Taylor, acting chairman of the board, so advised Kenneth Davis, executive secretary of the union, at Portland, Ore.

Ilsley Not Ready With Statement

OTTAWA, June 1 (CP).—Finance Minister Ilsley said today before the Commons Banking Committee he was not ready as yet to make a statement on whether inner reserves of the ten chartered banks should be made public.

Answering G. G. McGeer (Liberal, Vancouver-Burrard), Mr. Ilsley said he had hoped to make the statement yesterday or today, but it would be "comprehensive and fairly lengthy," giving conclusions and the reasons for them. He had to have more time for its preparation.

The inner reserves have not been made public in the past, but Mr. McGeer and Arthur Slaght (Liberal, Parry Sound) have asked they be revealed. The ministers and a limited number of Government officials are informed of the amount in the reserves.

Aussies Gain

ADVANCED ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, June 2 (Friday) (CP) — Australian forces pressing through difficult jungle country along the British New Guinea coast have reached Guru, 40 miles southeast of Hansa Bay, where American troops and Australian Air Force ground crews landed in April, headquarters announced today.

The Australians have been advancing northwest along the coast from Madang, which they captured a month ago.

Headquarters said reinforcements were being poured onto Biak Island to the aid of hard-pressed American troops striving to seize airdromes on that island, within bombing range of the Philippines.

YOUTH TO BE LOCATED

The Canadian Bureau of Investigation, Vancouver, reports that a request has been made to them to aid in ascertaining the whereabouts of Marcus Leon Hines, son of J. A. Errazuriz, Valparaiso, Chile. He left home with three other young men and is thought to be somewhere in British Columbia.

Hint Election Coming in Fall

OTTAWA, June 1 (CP).—Hot weather and slow progress in the Commons started a rumor in the capital about a possible Summer adjournment and a hint in Government circles that Parliament may be dissolved, probably late in August, with a general election in the Fall.

The rumor had it that instead of sitting all Summer, Parliament would adjourn after the budget resolutions were passed, possibly early in July, and leave until Autumn sittings the remainder of the Government's legislative programme.

"I hadn't heard of the rumor," a Cabinet minister told The Canadian Press, "but it wouldn't hurt my feelings any. However, I think you will see this whole thing blow up one of these days. Why, if we keep on as we have been doing we will not finish the legislative programme before December."

"You mean by 'blowing up' that we will have a general election?" he was asked.

"That's right," he replied. "We are not getting anywhere the way we are going."

The House has been dealing with the war appropriation measure on and off since February 11.

Another prominent Liberal member said he was "pretty certain" the Prime Minister would go to the country this Fall if the invasion of Europe was well underway.

While introducing Prime Minister John Curtin, of Australia, to members of the press gallery yesterday, Prime Minister Mackenzie King referred to elections in South Africa, Australia and New Zealand which returned Field Marshal Smuts, Mr. Curtin and Peter Fraser, respectively, to power. Mr. King added with a smile that he hoped these elections were a portent of what would happen in Canada.

to gain time to extricate his troops from the Frosinone area, says The Times' correspondent on the Anzio front.

The Americans have had a good number of tanks disabled here, but most of them are salvageable and more than half have been in action again the day after becoming casualties.

* * *

The Germans in Greece are becoming steadily more apprehensive and introducing increasingly brutal methods of repression, says The Times' Cairo correspondent.

To protect rail traffic against sabotage, each train now has two truck loads of Greek hostages preceding the engine, so that if the line has been interfered with, it is the Greeks who suffer first.

If the attack is made against the main part of the train, a German soldier detonates charges placed in the hostages' trucks.

The population of Greece are living under a most severe martial law, with a 12-hour curfew.

These measures are a good indication of the state of nerves of the German troops.

The Bulgarians in Thrace are reported to be similarly uneasy and there are continual desertions, despite recent doubling of the army pay.

News from other occupied countries shows the enemy is doing all he can to safeguard his security behind his "Atlantic Wall."

In Jutland he has carried out a large-scale roundup of Danish officials. In Norway, firing squads are busy. Hardly a day passes without killings in Holland and Belgium.

What the Germans have in mind is to eliminate all leaders who, when the Allies land, will rally their comrades against the oppressor, says The Times editorially.

Eleven on Board Missing Plane

OTTAWA, June 1 (CP).—R.C.A.F. Headquarters revealed late today that a big amphibian aircraft disappeared on a practice bombing flight in Newfoundland, May 20, with 11 persons aboard and since has been presumed lost.

Those aboard the aircraft—a Canso flying boat—included seven R.C.A.F. men and four passengers, some of whom are believed to have been members of the army and the navy.

Their next of kin have been notified and a list of the casualties will be made public shortly.

A widespread search for the plane was made but it now has been abandoned.

Curtin Address

Canadian airman did," he continued.

Mr. Curtin said Australians had gone into the war because they knew that in fighting for world freedom and in defence of Britain they were in fact fighting for the defence of their own country.

He spoke of the significance of the British parliamentary system in which the opposition had a vital place and minorities were respected.

PARLIAMENT GIVES STRENGTH

The strength which this parliamentary system gave the Dominions extended to the Commonwealth itself with Prime Ministers meeting not as leaders of parties but as heads of Governments presenting the views of their people. The principle extended to such meetings as those in which President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and Marshal Stalin participated in an effort to help the world rather than advance a political doctrine.

The great nations had been clear what association in war meant to them, Mr. Curtin continued.

"I plead for the average citizen," he said.

His plea was for the women of 40 with sons and daughters of from 12 to 18; for small shopkeepers; for the next generation, and "for my own grandchildren, if there be any."

Collaboration of the great powers had been indispensible to get the strength with which to meet the attack and it should be preserved and nourished so the world would never again have to face the abysmal condition in which the sword was the instrument of government rather than the light of reason.

BIG FOUR HAVE HIGH RESPONSIBILITIES

The worst evil which could come to the world was that millions of people useful in production had to be set apart in armies to fight other armies.

"Upon the great nations, then, surely there falls the responsibility of making it clear that that association which war has meant for us, meant for Russia, meant for the United States, meant for the British Commonwealth, these three great powers, together with China . . . these four who have subscribed themselves to the Charter, means that their great resources involve also high responsibilities," said Mr. Curtin.

"What is their major responsibility? Just as they could agree and find ways and means to pool their strength to resist a brutal foe who threatened their homes, their liberties and the sovereignty of their peoples in their own affairs, so surely this strength, so prodigious in the present service of freedom, is a strength which can be maintained and made use of in order to prevent a recurrence of calamities such as Hitler and his Axis collaborators have forced upon an unwilling and, indeed, victimized world."

SENATE JOINS COMMONS TO HEAR ADDRESS

In the green Commons chamber, red chairs were placed along the length of the parliamentary benches to accommodate members of the Senate.

Mr. Curtin is en route home after attending the Empire Prime Ministers' conference in London. He arrived in Ottawa Tuesday.

Besides Prime Minister Churchill, Rt. Hon. Robert Menzies, former Australian Premier; Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek, wife of the Chinese Generalissimo, and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden have addressed joint sessions of the Canadian Commons and Senate.

In introducing Mr. Curtin to the assembled members and senators after the Commons opened, Mr. King refered to the closer relationship of Australian and Canadian forces when Germany was defeated and the war was fought only in the Pacific.

"We wish to give to you the assurance that just as your forces and ours have been exerting their strength wherever the call was most imperative in this global war; just as today we await with confidence the outcome of the colossal conflict which will crush forever the menace of Nazi tyranny; so on the morrow our forces will be found closer than ever at the side of yours, sharing with our allies in the total destruction of the tyranny of Japan."

OPPOSITION LEADER SUPPORTS MR. KING

Gordon Graydon, Progressive Conservative House leader, speaking on behalf of the Opposition groups in the House, joined in the welcome extended by the Prime Minister.

Canada admired the achievement of the Australian people in two wars.

"Their giant contribution to the fight for freedom, which came at one critical stage to Australia's very shores, constitutes an illustrious page in the history of this war, as in the last," said Mr. Graydon.

After the conclusion of Mr. Curtin's address, Hon. Thomas Vien, Senate speaker, expressed appreciation to Mr. Curtin in French.

"Canada has been in the West the link joining the old world and the new," he said.

Speaker Glenn also thanked Mr. Curtin for his address.

"We wish you a safe return to your native land and we hope that the time is not far distant when we shall meet again in the happier days when this war shall cease," said Mr Glenn.

When the speakers completed their speeches, Mr. King called for the singing of God Save the King. This was followed by three cheers for Mr. Curtin.

DISTINGUISHED CAREER IN MANY SCHOOLS

Dr. Ewing has had a distinguished educational career in rural, elementary, normal, Summer School of education and university teaching. He is the author of a book of essays, "Reflections of a Dominie," and co-author with Dr. D. L. McLaurin of a textbook on social educational psychology. For 18 years Dr. Ewing has contributed a monthly essay to the "B.C. Teacher" under the pen name of "Paedagogos."

To the public, Dr. Ewing is perhaps best known for his popular platform and radio addresses, particularly panel discussions on the national network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

Dr. Ewing is also well known for his advocacy of high standards of intellectual attainment and scholarship, as well as for the breadth of his vision of the needs of all of the young people who pass through the schools.

Deposits Decline

OTTAWA, June 1 (CP).—Dominion Government deposits declined $12,013,000 to $101,804,000 during the week ended May 31, the Bank of Canada reported today in its weekly financial statement.

Chartered bank deposits increased $31,648,000 to $377,853,000, while notes in circulation decreased $112,000 to $911,543,000.

General Pearkes

Slogan of the campaign is "Go Active," General Pearkes told officers at a recent conference, and he urged all ranks to impress on all citizens the supreme need for men at this most critical time in the history of Canada. He pointed out that Canadians now fighting bitterly and magnificently in Italy, and other thousands of Canadians soon to be tested in the storming of the bastion of Hitler's European fortress, must have adequate trained reinforcements to support them.

Traditions established by the famed Canadian Expeditionary Force of the last war, which helped Canada attain nationhood, are being maintained on Italian battlefields today, General Pearkes said. He asked all Canadians to rededicate themselves to the task of leaving no stone unturned to secure complete victory.

"The badge of manhood," General Pearkes said, "is the red 'O.S.' badge on the active force soldier. The splendid women of the C.W.A.C. all proudly wear this badge, indicating their voluntary desire to serve in any theatre of war anywhere in the world."

Troops in Pacific Command fulfill three roles at present:

(1) Defence of the West Coast against the possibility of enemy raids. This danger, General Pearkes pointed out, has been reduced since the Aleutians were cleared of Japanese.

(2) Provision of trained reinforcements for overseas units and formations.

(3) Maintaining a complete task force to be prepared for any eventuality in the Pacific.

Today, he emphasized, the most important role is that of maintaining an adequate stream of active force soldiers for overseas.

the latest gains as "limited but important."

British forces pushing up from the coastal sector due south of Rome reached an undisclosed point on the road north of Ardea, which is 20 miles south of Rome, and British armored units, slashing west of the fortified town of Lanuvio, crossed the Fosso di Campoleone, a drainage canal. Lanuvio is south of the Alban Hills, between Velletri and Ardea.

An Allied spokesman said the enemy was strongly entrenched in the entire Lanuvio sector, taking full advantage of difficult terrain and employing concrete pillboxes, anti-tank gun emplacements and self-propelling artillery.

Canadian troops of the British Eighth Army this morning occupied Frosinone, an important road junction and provincial capital meeting little resistance. German rearguards were withdrawn from Frosinone after fighting another delaying action.

An A.P. dispatch dateline with the Eighth Army at Frosinone said troops looked down tonight on Ferentino from adjacent high ground, adding it appeared this town on the same highway eight miles northwest of Frosinone would fall without much opposition.

A Reuter's News Agency dispatch said Canadian forces who established themselves at a crossroads just west of Frosinone, where a highway runs north and northwest through the mountains to Arsoli, ambushed an enemy unit, killing and wounding a number of Germans and taking nine prisoners.

WITH THE CANADIAN CORPS IN ITALY, June 1 (CP).—Eastern Canadian troops advancing on two flanks closed in tonight on Ferentino, on the Via Casilina, 18 airline miles southeast of the enemy stronghold of Valmontone and 38 airline miles from Rome.

The swift-breaking Canadian drive was meeting less opposition than during the earlier stages of the German withdrawal from the Melfa River.

Ferentino is seven miles northwest of Frosinone, which fell late Wednesday to a Western Canadian battalion after a light house-clearing of enemy nests in the important town with a normal population of 20,000.

Previous dispatches indicated the Canadian troops, part of the British Eighth Army, were advancing on a one-division front, and it appeared that the units which scored the latest successes were from the Canadian division which saw its first major action in the current offensive.

An Eastern Canada regiment of this division is the Cape Breton Highlanders of Sydney, N.S. The only Western Canada unit of the division so far identified is a motorized infantry regiment, the Westminster Regiment of New Westminster, B.C.

Fall of Frosinone was announced in today's Allied headquarters communique, and it was revealed also that the Canadians are approximately 18 miles from Valmontone along the Via Casilina, a paved highway which leads from Cassino through Frosinone to Rome.

Ontario reconnaissance troops were reported in the vicinity of Ferentino today in an advance south of the Via Casilina, Highway No. 6. An Ontario infantry battalion was closing in along Highway 6, meeting light opposition with little shelling. Its advance was slowed, however, by blown bridges.

To the north of Highway No. 6 a Western battalion made for high ground visible from Frosinone which is situated on slopes overlooking the Sacco Valley from the north.

Along the fluid, ever-changing front, Canadian troops ran into many unusual incidents. The experience of a Western Highland battalion was typical.

In less than a day a company under a captain from Calgary accounted for or helped to get four German jeeps, a motorcycle and a truck which drove unawares into Canadian positions at a crossroads immediately northwest of Frosinone.

A German dispatch rider drove into the same road junction, climbed off his motorcycle and suddenly recognized the Canadians. He was captured.

A section under Cpl. John Cromb, Vancouver and Winnipeg, with Sgt. George Booth, Vancouver, was surprised to see the enemy jeeps nearing the crossroads. They began firing on the Germans, killing at least 18 of them.

Home Building Is Maintained

Building permits for work valued at $383,230 were issued in Greater Victoria last month, with the city and the three adjoining municipalities all showing an increase over their 1943 figures, according to statistics from the municipal building inspectors' departments.

Broken down, the figures revealed the city proper setting the pace with work valued at $175,429, with Saanich next in line with $112,820. Oak Bay's total for the month was $79,656, and Esquimalt building totaled $16,025.

Permits issued during the month numbered 199. Victoria issued 94, Saanich 77, Oak Bay 19 and Esquimalt nine.

Saanich topped the municipalities in new homes under construction with 34, while the city proper listed 24. Oak Bay figures included 15 new dwellings.

During the five-month period, the city issued 359 permits, including 62 new dwellings, for work valued at $546,317. In comparison, the 1943 figures were 280 permits, six new homes and a total expenditure of $249,070.

Saanich's total up to May 31 amounted to $346,275, as compared with $41,247 for the five-month period in 1943. A total of 262 permits have been issued so far this year, as against 155 last year. The list included 100 dwellings for 1944, as against 19 in 1943.

Since the start of the year Oak Bay has issued 78 permits for building valued at $184,191, of which 40 were for new dwellings. Last year Oak Bay issued 43 permits valued at $85,062, including six new homes.

Esquimalt's total for the five-month period amounted to $23,025, with 22 permits being taken out, as against $13,933 and 15 permits in 1943.

A comparison of the figures for the month of May, 1943, showed the city issued 73 permits for work valued at $97,761, while Saanich issued 42 permits for construction worth $12,115. Oak Bay granted 13 permits involving an expenditure of $9,670, while Esquimalt issued five permits for work estimated to cost $6,325.

Receives Pictures

Mayor Andrew McGavin yesterday received from the Ottawa representative of the Russian Government a series of pictures depicting the "Defence of Sevastopol," the Black Sea fortress city recently "adopted" by Greater Victoria. The many fine pictures, according to the mayor, will be used in a publicity campaign to raise funds for the citizens of Sevastopol, which Russian troops recaptured from the Nazis some weeks ago.

The War Today

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

A.P. War Analyst

The last Nazi defence line southeast of Rome showed signs of early crumbling as infiltrating American troops caught their first distant daylight glimpses of the Eternal City. Eyewitness press accounts of the [illegible] that placed them in the rear of enemy lines left little doubt that the Velletri-Lanuvio sector of the punctured German 29-mile front from Valmontone to the sea must soon fall.

Its collapse would do more than expose Rome to Allied investment or occupation. It would unhinge the whole German position across the Italian peninsula.

Indicated Nazi success in withdrawing from the Lepini Hills for the final phase of the retreat northwest up the Sacco Valley without loss of more than rear guard elements may have lessened Allied chances of dealing a crushing blow to the foe, but it has not wholly relieved the German situation. It means that the Allied Eighth Army now is able to concentrate its whole strength for quick exploitation of a break in the Valmontone-to-the-sea line at any point.

The army's French right wing is already pushing northward toward Valmontone up the Carpineto byroad to strike the Via Casilina east of Valmontone, outflanking the last Lepini peak north of Cori in its stride. The Fifth Army front is shortening with every rearward stride of the foe up the Sacco Valley.

Valmontone still seems the critical key to Allied hopes of smashing a major portion of the Nazi army in Italy in the field before it can escape northward up the peninsula. Cut off from the north and pinned against the huge bulk of the Simoruini ridge that separates the Sacco Valley from the Upper Liri, German forces falling back up the Sacco could still be trapped.

At the Theatres

'Lifeboat' to Open At the Dominion

Tallulah Bankhead, famous Broadway dramatic actress, is starred in Alfred Hitchcock's production of "Lifeboat," by John Steinbeck, which will open today at the Dominion Theatre.

In 20th Century-Fox's sensational saga of six men and three women adrift in an open boat in mid-Atlantic, Miss Bankhead's performance as "Connie Porter," has been hailed by critics as the greatest performance she has given on either stage or screen.

Alfred Hitchcock directed the film; Kenneth Macgowan was the producer. The screen play was written by Jo Swerling.

Featured in cast are William Bendix, Walter Slezak, Mary Anderson, John Hodiak, Henry Hull, Heather Angel, Hume Cronyn and Canada Lee.

Edith Atwater Featured In New York Production

Edith Atwater, who is featured with Paul McGrath in "Tomorrow the World," the New York Theatre prize play of the year, which comes to the Royal Theatre, for two nights, Friday and Saturday, June 9 and 10, has had a stage career very similar to that of Mr. McGrath. At the age of seven she had the lead in a play at the Faulkner School in Chicago. After many plays in High School and college, she finally reached the professional stage with a small part with Greta Nissen and Louis Calhern in the ill-fated play, "The Queen of Sheba." Then came better things, appearing with Henry Hull in "Springtime for Henry," with Ruth Gordon in "The Country Wife," the Theatre Guild production of "The Masque of Kings," with Gertrude Lawrence in "Susan and God," and with the late Alexander Woollcott in "The Man Who Came to Dinner." In Hollywood she appeared in "We Went to College" and several other pictures.

Samuel Goldwyn Has New Picture Musical

Returning to the musical film field after five years of producing other types of screen fare, Samuel Goldwyn is said to have the gayest and most entertaining picture of his career in "Up in Arms," in technicolor, starring the Broadway comedy sensation, Danny Kaye, and bringing a new ensemble of Goldwyn Girls before the public. The picture will open next Monday at the Capitol Theatre.

Dinah Shore, Dana Andrews and Constance Dowling have top roles in the melodic tale of two buddies who are inducted into the army, and who, with their nurse girl friends, find themselves aboard a big transport headed for Jap infested islands in the South Pacific.

Predicts Long Pacific War

(The political writer for The Sydney Daily Telegraph, now touring Canada with Australian newspapermen, here tells of Australians' prediction for a long Pacific war.)

Written for The Canadian Press
By DON WHITTINGTON

Although the immediate danger of Australia being invaded has passed, Australians believe Japan will not be finally defeated until two years after the war in Europe ends.

While most of New Guinea and Papua has been freed from enemy domination, the stiffest Japanese resistance is yet to be encountered.

Recent clashes with the Jap have convinced Australian military observers that the enemy's present front-line troops are by no means his best, and that crack divisions are being kept in reserve to meet the Allies when they strike farther north and west.

Australians two years ago were ready for invasion of the mainland. There was no doubt in anyone's mind that the enemy's triumphant march south could not be stopped north of Australia.

The situation was saved by Australian troops in New Guinea, who defeated Japanese land forces in a major engagement for the first time since Allied reverses began at Pearl Harbor.

Japan's tide went on the ebb in the Southwest Pacific in August, 1942, when the enemy tried to occupy Milne Bay, on the southern tip of New Guinea. Milne Bay was to be the Jap jumping-off place for occupation of Port Moresby, the key to the north, and the only bay from which enemy forces could have invaded Australia from the northeast.

Australians were ready for the landing at Milne Bay. Supported by the Royal Australian Air Force, our troops routed the enemy and drove him back within a fortnight.

Meanwhile, strong enemy forces had landed at Buna and Gona, and had launched a determined cross-country drive at Port Moresby from the east. Again Australian troops defeated him, turned him back in his tracks, and, finally, in November, 1942, drove him into the sea at Buna, Gona and Sananda Point.

The danger had been closer than anyone but those engaged in the operation realized. In September the enemy was actually within 32 miles of Port Moresby.

Camp Registrations

Camp Thunderbird, with its Glinz Lake and surrounding Sooke Hills, will resound with the voices of young boys again this Summer when the Y.M.C.A. holds its annual camp programme. Registrations are now being taken at the "Y" and will continue until June 30.

The arts of swimming, boxing, track and field events and softball will be taught. Archie McKinnon, physical director the Y.M.C.A., will be in charge of sports programme. Nature study, square knitting, first aid and camp craft will also be covered in the extensive list of activities. Archie Morrison, boys' work secretary, will be in charge of the camp.

Atlas—"The Uninvited," starring Ray Milland and Ruth Hussey.

Cadet—Nelson Eddy in "The Phantom of the Opera."

Capitol—"Jane Eyre," featuring Joan Fontaine and Orson Welles.

Dominion—"Lifeboat," featuring Tallulah Bankhead and William Bendix.

Oak Bay and Plaza—"What a Woman," starring Rosalind Russell and Brian Aherne.

Rio—Hoot Gibson in "Westward Bound."

York—"Lost Horizon," featuring Ronald Colman.

"Journey for Margaret," was picked to play the important role of Edward Rochester's ward in "Jane Eyre," now at the Capitol Theatre. The stars in the play are Orson Welles and Joan Fontaine.

OAK BAY AND PLAZA THEATRES You'll be head over heels in laughs as you watch Rosalind Russell and Brian Aherne, the sensational comedy team of "My Sister Eileen," in Columbia's "What a Woman," the gayest, the sprightliest, the most enchanting comedy in years and years, now rocking the screen with laughter at the Oak Bay and Plaza Theatres.

RIO THEATRE Hoot Gibson and Ken Maynard, Western stars, who share top honors with Bob Steele in the Monogram film, "Westward Bound," which comes to the Rio Theatre today, are making plans now for a giant rodeo show with which they will tour the world when the war is over.

YORK THEATRE Edward Everett Horton, the movie comedian, who is featured with Ronald Colman in Columbia's new Frank Capra picture, "Lost Horizon," showing at the York Theatre, is reputed to hold more records for long-run stock engagements than any other actor. He was on the stage for many years before entering pictures.

Dance Revue Tonight

The dance revue to be given at the Royal Victoria Theatre tonight at 8 o'clock by the Florence Clough Dance Academy in aid of the Queen Alexandra Solarium promises a brilliant display of dancing of all types, from smart presentations of the currently popular jazz to graceful ballet set in exquisite scenes. Seventy-five young dancers will appear, from the irresistible young tots to the older dancers who exhibit talent and skill approaching the truly professional.

The second half of the programme is comprised entirely of the older dancers, opening with a colorful and lively national dance number portraying the peasant dances of Poland, Spain and South America. In the final number, 20 girls in full pastel ballet dresses dotted with flowers, and others in black tuxedo suits, will bend and pirouette in graceful ballet movements.

ATLAS THEATRE Mysterious ghosts hold Ruth Hussey, Gail Russell and Ray Milland spellbound in Paramount's delightful drama of the supernatural, "The Uninvited," now at the Atlas Theatre. It is Miss Russell's first feature part. Starring with Milland and Miss Hussey is Donald Crisp. The picture also marks the screen debut of Cornelia Otis Skinner, famous star of the stage.

CADET THEATRE The screen's terror classic, "Phantom of the Opera," is now at the Cadet Theatre. The enthralling Universal production, revealed in the full splendor of dazzling Technicolor, stars Nelson Eddy, Susanna Foster and Claude Rains. Headlining an exceptional supporting cast are Edgar Barrier, Leo Carrillo, Jane Farrar, J. Edward Bromberg, Frits Feld and Hume Cronyn.

CAPITOL THEATRE Margaret O'Brien, the six-year-old sensation who was shot into the movie limelight almost overnight by her memorable performance in

No Auctions, Please

Whatever else they may see fit to do about the matter, the property owners of Victoria are not likely to enter into any kind of competition with municipal neighbors to see which community can give the most land for $1, or the longest concessions in water rates, in order to establish an ice skating arena in this area. The mere fact that an arena is desired does not mean that city ratepayers are going to indulge in any kind of public auction as to the terms. Nor need they do so.

If an arena is good business commercially, private enterprise will soon discover that fact and develop it. If the hazards are against the success of a private undertaking, there is still the case for the arena as a public enterprise, bearing in mind that all of the benefits are not commercial by any means. Elsewhere in British Columbia such undertakings have proved initially successful, although it must be conceded they have had the advantage of wartime conditions and swollen populations.

There is nothing in the case, however, which requires Victoria City, to go down on its knees for an arena, nor to enter into any form of competition with any of the surrounding areas. After all, the city is the centre of population in this district and has its own true requirements in the case. We reject any suggestion that our ratepayers should bid up because some other area may wish to do so. We believe that the ratepayers' response to that would be very quickly given, and it would be an immediate rejection of whatever was so proposed.

Police Salaries

The impasse created by a divergence of opinion between the City Council and its Police Board over the proposed increase in salaries and wages for the Victoria Police Department, over and above what has already been sanctioned by the Council for civic employees as a whole, should be cleared away by the most direct route possible. The City Council and the City Police Board should meet and come to some agreement that each will support.

Technically the City Police Board would seem to have the say as to how large a police force Victoria should have and what its various members should be paid. At the same time, there is not much sense in any civic board standing upon the letter of its rights if to do so is to throw the rest of the civic payroll out of gear. To attempt any such course, indeed, would be to have the part dictating to the whole, an absurdity in human as well as in other affairs.

In the present instance, the City Council should disclose the reasons for its budget limitations to the Police Board, and the Board should tell the Council why in its opinion the 6 per cent increase suggested by the Council was not sufficient. Obviously both bodies must eventually come together if the city is to get on with its other business. Nor is there any particular merit in the complicated and time-wasting machinery for appeals on either hand. Agreement must be reached finally, because payroll lapses will not do this community any good, and one such lapse has already been reported. There is a limit to the degree in which stubbornness is of any service at all.

German Nerves

There would appear to be good ground for repeated reports that the Gestapo is busy throughout Western Europe shooting people first and finding excuses for that course afterwards. It is, of course, a symptom of badly frayed German nerves and in strange and significant contrast to the calm that prevails in Great Britain, from whence the western invasion of Europe will come when the time is fully ripe. Also, the reign of terror is part of the German plan, so often and so aptly described by the Germans themselves.

Continued German losses in Italy, the desperate and ineffectual German attempt to wrest back a Russian bridgehead in the northern Balkans, and a growing tension all over the Reich, are additional signs that the day is coming when Germany will no longer be able to meet her military commitments in the field. In occupied Europe now the absence of German divisions that once stood guard is placing a strain upon the Gestapo that is resulting in incessant clashes with the suppressed populations. In some areas a virtual state of armed siege is present, and that before the main attack in the West has begun.

As the hour of Europe's deliverance grows nearer these conditions will intensify, and when the attack itself begins Germany will find as many enemies in civilian clothes as there may be armed forces brought against her in the field. It is at that moment that Germany will pay for the theft of men's birthright—their freedom—and all the Gestapo in Europe will prove of only small avail. Desperate men do not fear death. Nor will Germany have time to carry out her cold-blooded and brutal programme, whereby even defeat was to be turned into a Nazi victory. There are times when terror fails as a weapon, and for millions in Europe today that time has come.

Unfinished Business

At the time of the Sixth Victory Loan the Royal Jubilee Hospital laid aside its campaign for $200,000 with which to build a much-needed maternity wing at that institution. A considerable part of the money had been pledged—by the Provincial Government, by the City of Victoria, and by other sources—but a not inconsiderable balance remained to be found through public subscription. That is unfinished business, and perhaps we should get ahead with it now.

As had been said, the proposed new wing at one of Victoria's major institutions is not only required for its own sake, and that urgently, but also as a practical means of relief for over-congestion generally at the hospital. The construction of such a wing would at once free a considerable number of beds in the main buildings and extend the margin of safety which every senior hospital must have in a community of this size.

Plans for the proposed structure are in hand under expert supervision, and there is no reason why a successful effort could not be made at this time to complete the undertaking and fill this urgent need. The British Columbia Government has promised generous support to the undertaking. The City of Victoria has voted a definite sum to assist the enterprise. It remains only to collect the balance from public subscriptions in a case that is peculiarly Victoria's own business. Action should be found possible now. It is a priority case and a preferred cause.

Flight Sergeant Sam

An item in the press this week described how Flight Sergeant Douglas Sam, a Chinese pilot with the Royal Canadian Air Force, had taken part in the night bombing of Germany from a British base in England. Educated in Victoria schools, Flight Sergeant Sam is twenty-five years of age, and believed to be the first Chinese joining the R.C.A.F. as a fully qualified pilot. He has been in the service since October, 1942. For a number of reasons, but none simpler than that Victoria will be very proud of Flight Sergeant Douglas Sam, the news is both interesting and important. One likes to think of the young Chinese, at the controls of his warplane, getting his chance in some of the finest fighting company of the day. That he will do well there is shown in all of his previous record. That luck will attend him and bring him through safely will be the sincere wish of this community. Well done, Flight Sergeant Douglas Sam!

Seen in Passing

If the same self-control used by most people in wartime were carried forward into the peace, this world might one day be quite a fair place in which to live. For in the war people have learned to share, to do without, and to work wholeheartedly in a just and common cause. It is in the history of all wars, however, that the world suffers something of a relapse afterwards, and we are foolish to count upon the reformation of man being established in a day. That may require milleniums.

There are few expenses in the world so well justified as the outlay made to fill the shelves of a public library. Many a man, and woman, received most of their adult education there, at no greater personal cost than the will to study, and the effort to persist in it until that course became a habit. Every child should have a library card from his, or her, tenth year on, and be taught how to use it intelligently.

The Sabbath

The Sabbath Day! The nation is at rest.
The shops are closed, the people in their best
Wend different ways, to beach and fields to play:
Whilst others seek the House of God to pray.

The Sabbath Day! The sounds of commerce stilled.
The silence of a radiant morn is filled
With church bells ringing, sweet their melody,
Which stirs the heart with poignant memory.

The Sabbath Day! The Fourth Commandment still
Is ours to keep, if we would do the Will
Of Him who gave to us the Royal Law:
The choice of life abundant—chaos, war.

The Sabbath Day! When worship of the nation
Is given to the God of all creation
The lanes and cities shall resound with mirth:
"Men walk upon high places of the earth."

To Dimple

On discovering a hand-painted marker, "Love From Dimple," in a book from a circulating library.

Where'er you walk on Douglas Street,
I'm sure you're neat from hat to feet—
For you are Dimple.

Should bold lads try to muscle in,
You'll coldly stare, with lifted chin—
A haughty Dimple.

But, ah, should I come strolling by
I hope you'll smile, with roguish eye,
And show a dimple.

WHY NOT A JEEP?
(Vancouver Province)

If jeeps are available after the war—and, of course, there will be thousands of them—there is no good reason why they should not be sold to people who want them . . . To the small man in the country, a jeep would be a boon. This same small man can probably never hope to own a really efficient car of the conventional type. But he could hope—and does hope—to pick up a jeep and adapt it for use on his little place. And why should he not be given the opportunity? To scrap thousands of jeeps and vehicles of similar nature, just to keep the market sweet and open for cars of a conventional type would be an outrage.

TAKES ON NEW STRENGTH
(Calgary Herald)

The Empire that the Nazi leaders confidently expected would fall apart at the first beat of their drums in 1939 has taken on new strength and unity when confronted with Axis challenge. Nothing could demonstrate that fact more efficiently than in the present campaign in Italy, where fighting men from many lands under the Union Jack are fighting courageously for a common cause—the overthrow of Nazi Germany.

AIR TRANSPORT SAFE
(Edmonton Journal)

The safety of modern air transport over ocean, jungle, desert and mountain wilderness is striking. The losses on the eastbound ferry route over the Atlantic are very small, less than one-half of 1 per cent of the slightly more than 15,000 planes sent across failing to complete the crossing. Not only are the machines themselves vastly improved, but so are the aids to air navigation, particularly the weather services. These latter now cover the major portion of the earth's services and undoubtedly will be maintained and even extended in postwar years.

THE RIGHT CIGARETTE
(Winnipeg Free Press)

To the fighting man a cigarette is as important as a meal. The cigarettes which are issued to the Canadian army in Italy, however, are strange to the taste and feel of our soldiers. They are British cigarettes. They are no doubt highly esteemed by the British soldiers, who would not thank you for a Canadian cigarette. But Canadians like Canadian cigarettes. They are entitled to get Canadian cigarettes, and whoever is responsible for the cigarette supply for the men in Italy should be soundly rapped over the knuckles.

CREDIT TO HOUSEWIVES
(Windsor Daily Star)

With our price control and rationing system in operation, unique opportunities have come to housewives to serve their country. They are doing so when they buy wisely and carefully the everyday needs of the family. They are doing so when they watch prices and help the authorities to make controls effective. Without their co-operation, it would have been impossible for Canada to win the fight against inflation which has been as important as the war on the battle fronts. That they have played their part without the inspiration of bands, uniforms or flag-waving increases the credit due them.

BEST MEN NEEDED
(Toronto Globe and Mail)

One of the reasons why some of our Legislative Assemblies and the House of Commons are at such low ebb is the view taken by many that no decent man ought to stand for office. If, after the Great War, more men had understood that the conduct of the people's business was important, we would have had better men in office. Only by able and conscientious men offering themselves for office will public affairs be improved. And when victory is won, when the gallant young men return from the war, the best thing that could happen for Canada would be for the brightest and keenest and those possessing the strongest moral courage among them to enter politics.

FAIR TO OUR OWN AGE
(Ottawa Journal)

Maybe in our day we have too much worship for gadgets; soo much obliviousness to the joy of simple things. Yet the truth remains that for most of us time has brought more of human dignity, less of hardship, more in education, more of understanding and compassion and pity between man and man. War has not killed human nobility; it had not killed a growing social consciousness; if there be fault at all it is that our hearts, our ambition for betterment, have outrun our capacity to translate them into action—to administer all the things our leaders plan for good. So let us not, in pining for "far-off things," be unfair to our own age.

EVACUEES AND WORDS

Sir,—The cabled headline as to British evacuee children needing to re-learn English seems to have aroused unnecessary feeling here and there.

No well-bred American parents would like their children to return from four years elsewhere talking Cockney, or with any other pronouncedly uneducated accent; and it is noticeable that several of the evacuees being now returned to their own land have, unfortunately, picked up some of the less admirable speech peculiarities of this continent. As a matter of fact, we all tend to do this, especially those of sympathetic or responsive temperament; but in children recovery may be slower, though it is certainly more desirable.

But it is rather amusing to observe that two of your correspondents on the subject are themselves guilty of that quite unforgivable verbal monstrosity, the term "Britisher" which is never used in Britain, instead of the age-old, correct and far more euphonious word "Briton." Why any educated person should prefer the hideous word "Britisher" is incomprehensible. Suppose we twisted our tongues around such similar mistakes as "U-ess-ay-ian"—or "Americaner" or "Canadaïte" or "Canadarer"? Such verbal gymnastics remind one of false notes in music, or the curiously ugly lines of a tall house with no forehead and a chopped roof.

Let our cousins and neighbors use words they prefer, right or wrong; but couldn't we ourselves be Britons and, above all, encourage in children musical intonation?

A REJOINDER

Sir,—Simon Pierre and those other chiefs certainly have a low opinion of the intelligence of Indians when they think Indians, as a whole, are not ready for enfranchisement. I can understand and excuse my white brethren for thinking Indians so dumb that they are not ready to vote, but when a few of my own countrymen think it, I'm abashed to say the least.

Mission schools for Indian children have been in existence almost as long as the inhabitation of the white folks, and the last three generations of Indians have all had grade schooling. I agree that there is a small percentage of illiterate Indians among the old folks, but because they cannot speak English, read nor write, is no indication that they cannot think nor understand the significance of voting.

Pierre contends that Indians have not made sufficient progress for enfranchisement. How does he and his compatriots expect Indians to make any great progress if not given the opportunity to use their education by conducting their own affairs? I contend that if Indians were given such an opportunity, their standard of living as a whole would be raised considerably.

The sooner Pierre and other Indian leaders realize that their fellow-countrymen, on the average, are quite capable thinkers, the greater progress Indians will make.

NOT DESPAIRING

Sir,—I notice a recent writer is so overwhelmed by the pessimistic facts concerning mankind that he despairs of any human remedy and looks forward to some spirit power which will wipe out all evil men and leave only the perfect ones to carry on. Well, we have all heard of Aladdin and his wonderful lamp, but this new power—according to Mr. George—will make a complete transformation with no mechanical aid whatsoever. To my mind, if this intriguing speculation was to take hold it would put a bad crimp in all human activities and there would be much agreement with the Cockney who said, "What's the use of anythink—nothink!" Your correspondent sees not one ray of hope for mankind without miraculous intervention, but can he tell us why this spirit power did not make a clean-up in Biblical times, when fighting and corruption was even more rife than now? I am sure the writer of the words, "Put not your trust in princes nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help" did not mean us to take them too literally.

If we go by the letter, there could be no such things as co-operation, lend-lease, etc., but only cash and carry. I am greatly surprised that Mr. George has gone to the Bible to find an easy way whereby we can escape responsibility, since the main teaching of that great book surely is that life is nothing if not a struggle. Since your correspondent brings in one great living authority to back him up, however, viz. Bernard Shaw, I assume that he is willing to spare that ripe philosopher from his coming holocaust. But a few more names of good ones should be given, I think, for company to the worthy Bernard in the brave new world. Let us have them, please, and then we will have some idea just where we stand.

DEAD END KIDS!

Observation Car

By G.B.

London cab drivers are reported to be taking in an average of $25 per night. Their headquarters are the Beaufort Club in Soho. They contribute 50 cents weekly to a fund which enables them to present $10 to every former member of their association on leave from the armed forces, and also send cash to their wives . . . A girl at a certain Boeing Aircraft plant was heard to remark to a friend during the lunch interval: "I found out what those hard lumps on my arms were. The doctor told me yesterday they were actually muscles" . . . What the future has in store for any person depends on what that person places in store for the future . . . Bill, the Broad Street barber, sat down last night to try his hand at writing a one-act play. "I am trying to describe a scene that took place 10 years ago," he told his wife. "What kind of dresses did women wear in those days?" Without even stopping to think, his wife answered: "The same kind I am wearing right now, thank you" . . . From an amateur weather prophet: "I believe the present cool nights and southwest winds will continue until August or September. Last year there was no really hot weather until September, and I am of the opinion the same will hold this year." . . . There is a standard joke applied to railways which run slowly. It appears that the conductor on such a line approached a woman, accompanied by her son, and asked for their tickets. The woman then handed him a full ticket and a half-fare. Gazing at the boy, he snorted: "That boy is too big to travel half-fare." The woman answered: "Is that so? He was small enough when the train started" . . . From Tobacconist Martin: "As one who eats most of his meals in town, I wonder if some establishments have 'juke boxes' to take the minds of customers off the food?"

Rotarians Entertain Hollywood Visitors

Snow White, dark-haired, smiling, petite, and sweet-voiced, was guest of Rotary Club members at a luncheon held yesterday at the Empress Hotel. Miss Adriana Caselotti, the original princess in the Walt Disney cartoon, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," captivated the members by her charm, her vivacity, and her singing of "I'm Wishing," "Whistle While You Work."

Wearing her fairy regalia, she was picturesque in blue bodice, full yellow skirt, with scarlet cape, edged with gold and a scarlet and gold bow perched on her dark tresses. J. Little, president, presented Miss Caselotti with a scarlet corsage bouquet. He also gave Miss Louis Lindon, pianist and accompanist, a corsage bouquet at the completion of her harmonica selection.

Pinto Colvig, Disney's famous man of many voices, shared honors with Snow White, and gave lively vocal exhibitions of "Grumpy," also the well-known voice of "Pluto" and "Goofy," and other familiar screen characters whom he impersonates. He also revealed sound effects obtained through the use of a trombone.

Accompanying the stars were Al Camp, of New York, manager of the unit, and largely responsible for bringing the Disney unit to Victoria, and Jack Morse, Y.M.C.A. superintendent of Victoria district and forts, who was in charge of local entertainments featuring the artists; and Rotarian J. M. Robertson, who, with the Capitol Theatre, presented the famous guests at the Rotary Club.

Introduced by Rotarian Colin T. Martin, the guests were thanked by Mr. Little.

Ginger Ale Plant Damaged by Fire

MONTREAL, June 1 (CP).—A three-alarm fire yesterday gutted part of the Canada Dry Ginger Ale Ltd. plant on North-End Street. No estimate of damage was available and no casualties were reported, although about 100 persons were working in the plant when the blaze started.

All workers managed to get to safety before flames started spreading from the wood shed where the fire was said to have originated.

Firemen from 20 stations succeeded in preventing the blaze from spreading over to a large lumber yard located at the rear of the Canada Dry plant.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

To find the depth of water on the sill at the Esquimalt Drydock at any time, add 36 feet to the height of high water as above given.

NON-SLIP JEWELS

Garnets are used in non-skid, fireproof mats for battleship decks to prevent slipping accidents.

According to Culbertson - - - -

The declarer in today's deal placed his faith in a finesse instead of an absolutely sure thing, and therefore deserved no great sympathy when the contract was lost.

West opened the heart king and when the deuce was played by East and the jack by declarer, quickly shifted to the diamond five. Declarer captured East's jack, drew two rounds of trumps, ending in dummy, and then hopefully finessed to his own diamond ten. West won, and after that there was no way by which declarer could avoid the loss of another heart trick and a club. Down one.

This was not a good play on declarer's part—to be as kind as possible! At the third trick (after capturing East's diamond jack), what could be wrong with making West take his heart ace, then and there? His best return would be a club. Declarer would win, cash the queen of trumps, enter dummy with the trump king, and then lead and pass the nine of hearts, discarding his club loser on that card. West would win with the ten, but now the heart right would be set up in dummy, providing an absolutely safe trick upon which to discard South's ten of diamonds.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, June 1 (AP). — The stock market's claims to an average five-year peak inspired considerable profit cashing today after a fast extension of Wednesday's advance in the forenoon.

Gains of fractions to a point were plentiful at the opening with low-priced motors appearing in sizable blocks. [illegible] and there after midday and top marks were reduced or eliminated at the close although weakness was a rarity and the list, as a whole, displayed relatively steady tone.

Investment sentiment still was buoyed by good war news, political hopes and business prospects, but there was a tendency to trim commitments on the idea a technical correction might be near. Strength of securities in London was a cheering factor.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was off .1 of a point at 53.3. The market was broad, 926 issues appearing. Of these, 349 were up, 329 down and 248 unchanged. Dealings dwindled as trends stalled, but volume of 1,193,020 shares compared with 1,182,810 Wednesday and was the largest since April 18.

Victorians Among Athabaskan Survivors Back in Canada

BACK in Canada for hard-earned spells of leave while waiting new drafts are survivors of H.M.C.S. Athabaskan, Canadian destroyer sunk in action with enemy destroyers off the coast of France, April 29.

The above group includes 18 of the 46 men who returned to Britain, rescued by Athabaskan's sister ship, H.M.C.S. Haida, and in the Haida's motorboat which was sailed to England by six of the survivors.

Toronto Stocks

TORONTO, June 1 (CP).—Gains of a point were netted on today's market by Canadian Locomotive, Abitibi 7 per cent preferred and Simpsons "A." C.P.R. and Brazilian were higher by 3-8 to 1-2. The 6 per cent Abitibi preferred added 3-4.

Giant Yellowknife, Bear Exploration, Negus and Coin Lake golds were higher. Lake Shore added 1-4.

Ventures sold off 25 cents to 9.15 and prices were soft for Pend Oreille, Steep Rock and Falconbridge Mining Corporation and Waite-Amulet ruled higher.

Price adjustments were insignificant in the Western oil list. Vermilata, Davies and Anglo-Canadian improved slightly and prices were down for British-Dominion, Mid-Continent and Pacific Refineries.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, June 1 (AP).—Profit taking and the pressure of crop forecasts reporting good to excellent prospects for all small grains affected wheat futures today and prices at the close were fractionally below the day's best levels, mill buying, heavy overnight purchases of flour and short covering had given the market for all grains a firm undertone during the early trading.

Weakness of Winnipeg, lack of demand and profit taking influenced rye futures, which also lost part of their advances. Analysts said the rye market probably was vulnerable with a number of traders believing the rally had run its course.

Wheat closed 3-4 to 1 3-8 higher than yesterday, July $1.63 1-4. Oats were unchanged to 1-4 higher, July 77 3-8. Rye was unchanged to 1-2 higher, July $1.12 7-8 to $1.13. Barley was 7-8 to 2 1-4 higher, July $1.22.

Tag Day Tomorrow to Aid Men Of Victoria Units Overseas

Tomorrow the Victoria Women's Auxiliaries of Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, the Fifth (B.C.) Coast Regiment, the Royal Canadian Engineers and the R.C.A.M.C. will hold a combined tag day to raise funds to send comforts to Victoria men of those units serving in Italy and elsewhere overseas.

The P.P.C.L.I. and Fifth Coast Regiment, and units of the R.C.E. and R.C.A.M.C. have been a part of Victoria's life for many decades and have earned admiration for their valorous service in two wars.

The P.P.C.L.I., formed in 1914, served with distinction in the last war and was maintained afterwards as part of the permanent force with detachments at Winnipeg and Esquimalt.

Two P.P.C.L.I. companies left Victoria in September, 1939, joined the rest of the regiment at Winnipeg, and went to England in December. The regiment landed in Sicily last Summer and has since been in hard fighting there and in Italy.

The Fifth Coast Regiment has existed as a unit since 1873. It sent volunteers to the Boer War, and many hundreds were trained in it for service in the last war.

On August 26, 1939, its personnel, all civilians, were called to arms at noon. By 7 p.m. all batteries reported "Ready to fire." Again many Victorians have been trained with this unit and are now overseas, some of them in Italy.

ENGINEERS UNIT HERE SINCE 1897

An engineers detachment has been on the Island since 1897, when a British unit arrived here. In 1906 a Canadian unit took over, and in 1914 many Victorians went overseas with the R.C.E. Many more are on active service now, and their duties include the neutralization of enemy mines and the provision of temporary bridges across rivers in Italy.

An R.C.A.M.C. unit was established at Esquimalt before the last war, under Major E. C. Hart. In 1915 he organized No. 5 General Hospital, which served in Greece for two years.

In 1939 the 13th Field Ambulance with headquarters here mobilized for duty, and went overseas in 1942. Changed to No. 13 Field Dressing Station, it is now serving in Italy.

No. 16 Canadian General Hospital, organized in 1942 under Col. Gordon Kenning, is now overseas. Col. C. A. Watson, Victoria, commands No. 11 Canadian General Hospital, and Col. Norman Cook, Victoria, is on its staff. Col. W. A. Fraser, Victoria, commands the 1,200-bed No. 12 Canadian General Hospital. The Canadian hospital ship, Lady Nelson, is commanded by Lt.-Col. A. L. Cornish, Victoria.

Proceeds of tomorrow's tag day will send gifts that will hearten Victoria men overseas with all these units. The committee in charge urges all Victorians to make their contributions generous.

To Protest

VANCOUVER, June 1 (CP).—Shareholders of Pioneer Gold Mines of British Columbia Ltd., decided at a meeting last night to protest to the Federal Government against a situation which they claim permits the Federal Taxation Department to make additional tax assessments for previous years based upon new rulings.

Shareholders said this leaves final tax liability always in doubt and subject to changes caused by departmental rulings.

Because of labor shortage Pioneer earned no taxbale profit in the year ended March 31, 1944, but was required to pay $29,702 in additional income tax dating back more than four years, because of a recent ruling.

Foreign Exchange

NEW YORK, June 1 (CP).—Foreign exchange closing rates:

Canadian dollar in New York open market 9 5-16 per cent discount or 90.68 3-4 United States cents, unchanged.

Europe: Great Britain official, buying 4.02, selling 4.04.

Latin America: Argentina free, 24.80, down .01 of a cent; Brazil free, 5.20; Mexico, 20.65.

Barilla Sentenced To Hang for Murder

VANCOUVER, June 1 (CP).—Albert F. Barilla, 25, was found guilty of murdering Wellington Wallace, 38, by a Supreme Court jury here today and Chief Justice Wendell B. Farris sentenced him to hang on August 19.

Dark-haired, well-dressed Barilla, who had maintained a stoic calm during the two and a half days of his trial, collapsed sobbing in the prisoner's box as sentence was pronounced.

Stewart Henderson, Barilla's counsel, announced he would appeal the verdict.

MINES RETURNED

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP).—Interior Secretary Harold Ickes has returned to private ownership coal mines producing 60 per cent of the United States' bituminous coal. He declared that management and labor "are now on trial to prove to the nation that they can fulfill wartime responsibilities under their own power."

LITTLE RESPONSE

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 1 (AP).—American Federation of Labor building trades officials have reported their nation-wide drive to recruit more than 3,000 workers to help complete $44,000,000 in naval construction here brought responses from only 30 men, despite the navy's offer of temporary housing and a free train ride.

Local Wholesale Produce Market

"Local strawberries are coming along slowly," said officials of wholesale row yesterday. "The rains have retarded the picking, but we hope to be going at full speed in a week's time."

Oranges in small sizes are plentiful in local wholesale houses, but the larger sizes are hard to obtain. A shipment of California Bing cherries arrived yesterday, and small lots of gooseberries are coming in regularly every other day. A shipment of Cuban pineapples is due next week and the first load of cantaloupes will arrive at the same time.

In the vegetable line, wholesalers state that asparagus is now more plentiful, but spinach is still scarce. Local green peas are now on the market, and old-crop potatoes are becoming more difficult to obtain, although it is expected that a load will arrive today from the Nicola Valley.

Winnipeg Grain

WINNIPEG, June 1 (CP)—United States interests were in the market for oats today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange and traders placed transactions at more than 500,000 bushels.

Export wheat business was small and confined to the sale of 120,000 bushels of Nos. 1 and 2 Northern to the United Kingdom.

Rye futures traded irregularly in a moderately active session closing values were 1 1-8 lower with July $1.14 3-4 and October $1.12 1-4.

New York and Chicago houses were on the buying side at times.

Montreal Stocks

MONTREAL, June 1 (CP).—Fraser and Howard Smith touched new highs in papers on today's market, but lost some of their profit. Others ahead were Price, Dryden, Maclaren, International Paper, St. Lawrence Corporation common and preferred, Donnacona, Consolidated Paper and St. Lawrence Paper preferred. Abitibi common retrieved a slip.

Firmer were Locomotive, at a new high, Dominion Bridge, National Steel Car and Sugar.

International Utilities "A" was at a new peak and also harder were Montreal Power, Brazilian and Shawinigan. Calgary Power preferred and Southern Canada Power preferred lagged. C.P.R. improved.

Smelters at a new high, Noranda and Hudson Bay Mining advanced, and B.A., after opening lower, pushed up. International Refineries and International Petroleum lagged.

Sgt. Hank Rowe Weds Miss Berry

Victoria's Dieppe hero, Sgt. Henry (Hank) Rowe, M.M., was united in marriage on Thursday evening to Jane Berry, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Trotter, 1036 Caledonia Avenue. The simple ceremony was performed by Rev. A. E. Whitehouse, D.D., in the vestry of the Metropolitan United Church. Sgt. Rowe, one of Victoria's outstanding athletes, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Rowe, 1420 Camosun Street. Famous in the basketball world, Sgt. Rowe was a member of the Dominoes when they won the British Columbia championship and he played also for the University of Oregon.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Pat Wightman, while Mr. Leonard Rowe was his brother's groomsman.

An informal reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, 1420 Camosun Street, where a profusion of flowers had been effectively arranged, and where the three-tier wedding cake centred the supper table. Mr. Syd Foster, an old family friend, gave the toast to the bride.

After a wedding trip Up-Island and to Vancouver, Sgt. and Mrs. Rowe will make their home for the present on Camosun Street.

School Children Net $77 at Sale

Children of Happy Valley School with the assistance of the teachers, Miss A. L. Eastman and Mrs. L. M. Green, held a successful bazaar on Wednesday afternoon at the school. The sum of $77 was realized.

Miss Eastman opened the bazaar and thanked parents and friends for generous donations and co-operation. The children had made most of the articles for the sale, the older girls and boys being in charge of the various stalls.

Laycock will speak at the evening conference, and a musical programme will be provided by the Nanaimo School Choir. Victoria delegates attending will be: Mrs. E. Evans, Mrs. W. Blair, Mrs. C. Peters, Mrs. W. McGill and Mrs. S. Anfield.

Weddings

GRAHAM-GIBSON

Rev. James Hood officiated at the marriage of Dorothy Charlotte Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Arden, 3668 Cedar Hill Road, and Tel. Donald Edward Graham, son of Mrs. Graham and the late Mr. Graham, Montreal, which took place on Friday, May 19, in Esquimalt Naval and Military United Church. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a floor-length gown of white satin with a long embroidered veil cascading from a Mary Queen of Scots head-dress. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, pink rosebuds and lily of the valley showered with sweet peas. Mrs. Muriel Lewis, matron of honor, wore a long frock of pale blue sheer, and the bridesmaids, Miss Shirley Banner and Miss Audrey Sullivan, wore similar frocks in pale yellow and pale blue, respectively, with matching chapel veils. All carried bouquets of pink tulips and Dutch blue iris. E.R.A. Ben Graham attended his brother, and serving as usher was P.O. Reg. Lewis. The reception was held in the Royal Bank Hall, where Mrs. F. Sullivan assisted Mrs. Arden in welcoming the guests. A three-tier cake was cut by the bride after the toast had been given by the groomsman. The bride left for the honeymoon in a pale blue suit with black accessories and a corsage bouquet of gardenias. Tel. and Mrs. Graham will make their home with the bride's parents for the present.

To Aid Solarium With Tea at "Molton Combe"

MRS. CURTIS SAMPSON

DIRECTOR of Queen Alexandra Solarium, and past president, who has maintained a keen interest in the Mill Bay organization since its inception, and will, on Saturday, throw open her home and gardens, "Molton Combe," 1003 Newport Avenue, for a silver tea from 3 to 5 o'clock. It is hoped by the committee in charge, headed by Miss Betty McAdie, assisted by Mrs. F. O. White and Mrs. F. Dunn, that tea, weather permitting, will be served in the lovely grounds of the Oak Bay home, when presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. Walter Luney, Mrs. Glen Simpson and Miss Kathleen Agnew. Serviteurs will be Mrs. C. H. Miller, Mrs. P. H. Brown, Mrs. Graham Harris, Mrs. R. C. McVey, Mrs. A. Sick, Miss Cora Wharton, Miss Mildred Jones, Miss Ruth Norton, Miss Pat Pendray, Mrs. H. V. Bassett. Music, fortune telling by Mrs. Kitt and Mrs. Rodney Beavan and croquet will form part of the afternoon's entertainment. Entire proceeds from the tea will be devoted to the Queen Alexandra Solarium. If the weather is inclement, tea will be served in the house.

Plan Recreation Says W.I. Delegate

VANCOUVER, June 1 (CP).—Something should be done to take the drudgery out of farm life and introduce planned recreation, Mrs. E. H. Tomer, Fraser River Valley, told delegates last night at the Women's Institute convention here.

Advocating mobile units to teach vocational trades and farm demonstrators to help the women, Mrs. Tomer said delegates with concise programmes should meet the Provincial Government with insistence on action. She added that leaders had not been far-sighted in their programme of help for soldier settlers.

Flax grown, spun and woven by British Columbia's Doukhobors was displayed by Mrs. R. W. Chalmers, of Thrums, provincial convener of agriculture. "They are not all like those who disrobe; some of them are as nice as you and I," Mrs. Chalmers said.

Agriculture Minister K. C. MacDonald urged the women to "broadcast" the need for labor to harvest crops and advocated public opinion to desire opportunity for development and prosperity for all people without exploitation of labor or producer.

Good citizenship is developed in the schools, churches, the press, workshops and in the homes, Education Minister H. G. Perry told delegates to the women's institute convention here today.

"Democratic action or good citizenship means shared activity, joint planning and action for better community living," Mr. Perry said.

He praised the institute and remarked that throughout the province it had demonstrated the highest principles of good citizenship.

One of the blights of citizenship are the "yes-men," Mr. Perry said. He stressed the fact that citizenship entails such responsibilities as exercising our franchise.

Adult education is necessary to good citizenship. Mr. Perry said in British Columbia this year $121,000 was spent on this particular branch of education.

Major-Gen. Pearkes, V.C. Opens Island C.W.A.C. Hut

NANAIMO, June 1. — Lowering clouds and the threat of rain failed to dampen the spirits of a band of Nanaimo women on Wednesday afternoon when Maj.-General G. R. Pearkes, V.C., G.O.C.-in-C., Pacific Command, formally opened the C.W.A.C. bathing hut at Departure Bay.

Accepting the key from Mrs. S. V. Isaacson, chairman of the ladies' auxiliary to the women of the armed forces, General Pearkes opened the comfortable hut and handed it over to Lt. Mildred Russell, officer commanding the C.W.A.C. detachment at Nanaimo. The ceremony followed an inspection by the G.O.C.-in-C. of a smart guard of honor provided by the C.W.A.C.

"This gesture on the part of the women of Nanaimo is a recognition of the great effort being made by the women of Canada in this war," General Pearkes said. "One would have thought that their part was grim enough in giving their husbands, sons and brothers—but they are not content with that.

"They are not content to let others do the job for them and are anxious to pull their own weight in helping to win the war. The women of Canada—and of Great Britain and the United States—realize what a great crusade this is and they have done a tremendous job. Some of their jobs are humdrum and monotonous, but they free men for active service."

The General praised the smart C.W.A.C. guard, and commented on the fact that each wears the "G.S." badge symbolic of a willingness to serve anywhere.

"A month or so ago I said the 'G.S.' badge was the badge of manhood," the G.O.C.-in-C. said. "I should have also said that it is a badge worthy of the high-spirited girls who set a splendid example to all Canada."

Among committee members present were Mrs. Isaacson, Mrs. M. Blunt, Mrs. Edge Partington, Mrs. A. F. Vanger, Mrs. R. P. Wilson, Mrs. C. H. Barker (honorary vice-president), Mrs. C. Baker, Mrs. G. S. Robertson, Mrs. J. M. Campbell and Mrs. Ted Wilson. Tea was served after visitors inspected the bath-house facilities, which are available to girls of the three armed services.

Flannel Dance Aids Hospital

Dancers at the Crystal Garden on Thursday night aided the Royal Jubilee Alumnae when they attended the annual flannel dance given by the women's organization.

Mrs. Elizabeth McKinnon, convener of the affair, and Mrs. D. McLoud, president of the alumnae, received the guests. Bright summer prints were in evidence among the dancers and a large percentage of the R.C.A.F. was represented.

Patrons of the dance were Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Walker, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberts and Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Moore.

The novel floor show given by Nellie Small's School of Dancing featured Audrey Patrick's "Skipping Rope" number and her intricate "Formal Rhythm." The ever-popular Hawaiian number with a chorus of 18 was highlighted with Connie Sproule as soloist, dancing to the strains of the "Aloha Waltz Song" and the "Hawaiian War Chant."

Committee assisting Mrs. McKinnon included Mrs. C. Flower, Mrs. N. McConnell, Mrs. R. Banyard and Misses M. Dickson, M. Worsley and M. McLeod.

Schubert Club Elects Lea Palmer President

Serving her second term as president, Miss Lea Palmer was re-elected to head the Schubert Club at the annual meeting held at the home of Miss Jean Straight, Beach Drive, recently.

Her supporting officers will be: Honorary president, Miss Christine Hebden; vice-president, Miss Clare Robinson; secretary, Miss Gladys Stott; treasurer, Miss Lola Kenmuir; librarian, Miss Sylvia Kelly; publicity secretary, Miss Jessie Heller.

Appreciation of the work of the executive was expressed by Miss Palmer and the secretary's report was given by Miss Marguerite Rush. Miss Kenmuir gave the financial statement, Miss Robinson the librarian's report and Miss Straight reported on the concerts held. Presentations were made to Frederic King and Mrs. King, Miss Dorothy Gough, Miss Hazel Clyde whose marriage will take place shortly. The second soprano and alto sections served refreshments.

Clubs and Societies

Qu Alex Club

Qu Alex Club held a meeting recently at the home of Mrs. M. Williams, 1123 North Park Street. The president, Mrs. M. Smith, who was in the chair, extended thanks to Miss Helen Atack for the arrangements of the successful Mother's Day tea held at the Empress Hotel. Mrs. O. Payne, secretary, read a letter from the Solarium Junior League acknowledging the club's donation to the "shower of dimes." Plans were made for a theatre party to take the place of the next meeting on Tuesday, June 27. The "mystery box" was won by Mrs. L. Marrion, after which refreshments were served by the hostess.

Senior C.W.L.

A meeting of the Senior Subdivision of the Catholic Women's League will be held June 6 at 8 o'clock in Parish Hall.

Tea Saturday to Aid China Fund

Pretty Chinese girls in their national costumes will grace the tea and exhibition of Chinese art to be held on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. G. Clark, 305 Denison Road, Gonzales Heights, Oak Bay, to augment the Medical Aid to China Fund. Tea will be served in the dining-room, and novel little cocktail napkins, gay with Chinese characters, obtained from New York, will be an added attraction. The affair will be open from 2:30 until 5 p.m.

Members and friends are busy collecting articles for the white elephant stall, which are collected at the office, 737 Pandora Avenue, until noon on Saturday. Rare and rationed commodities, such as finest grade honey, butter, jam, tea, coffee and chocolate bars, will be included in the grocery contest and a rich Christmas recipe cake will be another feature. Fortune telling will be available to those who want to look into the future.

Garden Fair Will Benefit Red Cross

Metchosin Unit of the Red Cross is organizing a garden fair, to be held in the Metchosin Hall on Saturday, June 24, from 2 till 6 o'clock. The affair will take the form of a flower and vegetable show, and it is being given instead of the usual Spring flower and bulb show, which was not held this year. There will be both flowers and vegetables for sale, after the judging, which will be carried out by the general public by means of ballots provided at the door. There will be a food stall, some contests, and the special posters done by the Junior Red Cross of Metchosin School will be exhibited, and prizes awarded. A strawberry tea is planned.

The doll house, now on display in the Red Cross window on Government Street, will be shown, in charge of the Junior Auxiliary to the Metchosin Unit. The prize list is as follows: 1, display of flowers and flowering shrubs, assorted varieties, excepting roses; space permitted, 4 feet by 3 feet 6 inches. 2, display of roses; space permitted same as foregoing. 3, vegetable exhibits, assorted; space permitted, 3 feet square. 4, mixed flower baskets. 5, decorated tables; approximate size 30 inches square (card tables; no candles or special ornaments; judged on artistic merits. 6, children's section. Division 1, mixed flower bouquets in containers; Division 2, "flats" of vegetable seedlings, approximate size 18 by 24 inches.

All exhibits must be in by or before 12 o'clock noon on the day of fair, and not removed before 4 p.m. All exhibits in Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 and Division 2, Section 6, to be property of and grown by exhibitor. Exhibitors must provide suitable glass containers. Red Cross Challenge Cup, won last year by Mrs. W. L. Whitney-Griffiths, goes to the winner of the largest aggregate votes.

Mrs. Ryland H. New To Head I.O.D.E.

By HELEN BANNERMAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

HAMILTON, Ont., June 1 (CP).—Mrs. Ryland H. New, of Oakville, Ont., today was elected national president of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire as the order's colorful closing ceremony ended the 44th annual national convention.

She succeeds Mrs. W. B. Horkin, C.B.E., of Toronto, who held the office for five years. Mrs. New was formerly vice-president of the order.

Other national officers elected included Mrs. E. Newman, Regina, standard bearer.

The election climaxed a five-day convention which has featured reports of the order's many-sided reports. Yesterday the convention elected 40 national councillors who in turn elected the national officers.

V.I. PRESBYTERY Y.P.U.

V.I. Presbytery Y.P.U. presented Wall Spence's play, "The Opening of a Door," on Wednesday evening at First United Church. Mr. Arthur Veals directed the performance, and the cast included Miss Eleanore Brooke, Miss Jean Spiller, Miss Irene Birkett, Miss Dorothy Griffith, Clifford Batstone, Malcolm McMillan and Blair Fulton. A musical programme preceded the play, following artists taking part: Miss Margaret Husband, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Harding, vocal solos; Miss Beth Walker, piano solos; Miss Grace Adams, accompanied by Miss Jean Adams, vocal solos; Mrs. Marie Watson, monologues; and John Symons, accompanied by Miss Beth Walker, trombone solos. The president, Miss Irene Birkett, gave the welcome, and the programme was announced by Miss Ella Marr, vice-president. Miss Peggy Pepper and Miss June Dunne were in charge of tickets, and proceeds from the entertainment will go to the Medical Missions Project.

C.C.C. A.Y.P.A.

Meeting of Christ Church Cathedral A.Y.P.A. was opened with prayers led by Rev. W. Askew, with the president, Irene Webb, in the chair. R. Jarvis-Reed reported on the forthcoming Youth Commission to take place on Saturday at Central Junior High School. An open discussion was held under direction of Group 1. Next meeting will be on June 7 at 7:30, when election of officers will take place.

Red Cross Notes

CONTEST WINNERS

The rug contest conducted by the Canadian Red Cross Society, Victoria City and District Branch, was closed yesterday when Mr. A. Moore drew the winners. The first prize went to Mr. R. Stacey, 35 Obed Avenue; the second to H. J. Jury, 72 Baby Point Road, Toronto, and third prize to I. Stein, 5790 Hudson Street, Vancouver. The proceeds of the rugs amounted to $435.25. The tablecloth, made and donated by Mrs. Foster, 928 Bay Street, to the Red Cross, was won yesterday by Mrs. Clark, 1148 Oscar Street, when Mrs. Foster drew the winner. The tablecloth proceeds amounted to $123.70.

I.O.D.E. Activities

MUNICIPAL CHAPTER

It was announced at a recent meeting of Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., that books and magazines for the troops in this area and overseas should be left at either the home of Mrs. J. Quinn, 1331 Esquimalt Road, for the navy and merchant marine, or in the basement of the Churchill Hotel for the army and air force. If it is not convenient to deliver this much-needed reading matter, arrangements will be made with the Salvage truck to call when in the vicinity. Mrs. A. H. C. Phippe was in the chair.

To Begin Work On Health Centre

VANCOUVER, June 1 (CP).—Work on rehabilitation centres here will begin as soon as possible, Health Minister Ian Mackenzie said on his arrival here today for the Canadian Legion Convention.

Eight one-story buildings, each to accommodate 25 persons, are planned in connection with a proposed health and occupational [illegible] for British Columbia, Mackenzie said.

The centre would enable casualties and sick men, no longer requiring medical and surgical attention, to rehabilitate themselves.

Weather Summary

On May 27 the temperature rose to 76 degrees, and the coldest day was May 10, when it dropped to 39 degrees, according to the Dominion Meteorological Observatory at Gonzales Hill. The mean temperature was 54 degrees, one degree above normal, and the minimum temperature on the grass was 32 degrees on May 10.

Precipitation for the month totaled 1.31 inches, .35 inches above normal. Sunshine totaled 276 hours, six hours above normal. Precipitation from January 1 to May 31 was 9.38 inches, which was 2.33 inches below normal.

Must Not Waste Wood

Destruction of wood fuel and processing of millwood is forbidden by a new order of the Department of Munitions and Supply. Timber order No. 24 imposes these restrictions in British Columbia only, and is subject to permits which may be issued by the timber controller or the regional wood fuel officer.

Slabs, edgings, blocks and inside material which is usually used as domestic fuel, cannot thus be turned into "hog fuel," but cedar millwood may still be processed by the mill.

Sawdust burners are to remain frozen according to the order, which sets forth legal measurements for wood fuel and sawdust, and specifies an exact form for invoices. For the protection of buyers, the order requires that invoices be properly filled out and dated and that all charges made must be specified.

Plan Bible Ceremony

Members of the City School Board at a special meeting last night decided to have a massed dedication service for the presentation to city schools of 136 Bibles, the gift of The Gideons, and plans for the event were left in the hands of the education committee.

Tribute to the excellent work of Conductor A. Prescott, of the Victoria Schools' Band, and members of the band committee, for the treatment accorded the young musicians during their recent visit to Vancouver to participate in the Mainland Musical Festival, was contained in letters read to the board by Trustee F. G. Mulliner, chairman of the band committee.

Austin I. Curtis, school board chairman, on behalf of his colleagues, extended condolences to T. L. Christie, school board secretary, on the loss of his brother, who has been reported killed in action in Italy.

Purchase Coal Early

Householders should buy, during the Summer, at least half of their Winter coal needs, T. Marshall, regional allocation officer for the Dominion Coal Controller, said yesterday. The aim is to keep mines working steadily during what is usually a less busy part of the year.

If next Winter is normal and therefore colder than last Winter possibly 500,000 tons more coal will be needed, Mr. Marshall stated.

Production of domestic coal, on the other hand, will be reduced by 250,000 tons this year by shutdown of some mines, and part-time operation of some other mines will mean a further loss of 250,000 tons, he said.

GET OUT OF THE BARRIER—AND GET MORE OUT OF LIFE!

SO OFTEN the invisible barrier of "B.O." comes between its victims and their hopes of happiness. It goes where they go . . . dooms love, friendship, popularity!

Yet the answer is simple. Bathe daily with Lifebuoy and break out of the barrier! Lifebuoy, you know, is the only soap especially made to stop "B.O."

You'll enjoy its rich, velvety lather. And notice how Lifebuoy's invigorating scent vanishes before you're even dressed!

Remember, too, Lifebuoy is extra mild, extra gentle. Tests prove Lifebuoy actually milder than many so-called beauty soaps.

$45,000,000 Contract Let

OTTAWA, June 1 (CP).—Contracts for the construction of 31 maintenance ships at a total cost of $45,000,000 have been let to three Vancouver shipyards, Munitions Department officials said today.

The ships, similar in type to 10,000-ton cargo ships, are in effect "mobile workshops" of the sea and are equipped to perform a wide range of repair and maintenance work at sea.

Contracts have been given the Burrard shipyard for 11 of the ships, while five will be built at the North Vancouver yard and five at the West Coast Shipbuilding Co.

Vancouver Forecast

Moderate to fresh winds. Cloudy and cool with light intermittent rain in the afternoon.

No Calls Yet Upon New Proctor Fund

So far there has been no call upon the King's Proctor vote of $6,000 approved by the Legislature this Spring, Hon. R. L. Maitland, K.C., Attorney-General, stated yesterday the money was available to investigate any irregularities in divorce proceedings, as suggested by Supreme Court judges, but no requests for such investigations have come in.

Soldier Presented With Testimonial

Soldiers the world over honor courage, but they honor it more when it is coupled with quick thinking and mental alertness, Major-General G. R. Pearkes, V.C., G.O.C.-in-C., Pacific Command, told troops gathered at Work Point yesterday morning.

The occasion was the presentation of the Royal Humane Association's Honorary Testimonial to L.-Bdr. William Beattie for "heroic action and presence of mind" on October 11, 1943. L.-Bdr. Beattie at that time assisted in rescuing from drowning William Heads and Jack Dick in a gale-off Grief Point, Westview, B.C.

Presentation of the testimonial was made by General Pearkes to L.-Bdr. Beattie while his comrades formed a hollow square in the Macaulay Point drill hall. Brig. J. F. Preston, M.C., officer commanding the fortress area, read the citation and T. W. S. Parsons, Commissioner of Provincial Police, handed the scroll to General Pearkes.

General Pearkes reminded the troops of the crucial period through which the war is passing and predicted that many present would recall the scene in the drill hall at Macaulay when later they are bearing arms besides their comrades overseas.

In inspired words he told of the glorious actions of men of the Princess Patricia's Light Infantry in Italy, and forecast that this heroic role would be duplicated later in the battles to come by many who now stood before him.

What Today Means

GEMINI

If June 2 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m., from 2:45 to 4:45 p.m. and from 8:45 to 10:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 8:45 to 10:45 a.m., from 6:45 to 8:45 p.m. and from 10:45 p.m. until midnight.

A good day to remember that "comparisons are odious," especially those that are definitely personal, so it will be good judgment not to indulge in them today. Today display the spirit of forgiveness should there be any occasion for your exhibiting it, and the satisfaction you will experience may amply repay you. A lot of needless worrying will be done by anyone foolish enough to be unduly suspicious, so be careful how you indulge in assumptions or doubts. You will do well to deal in facts, not theories, on this occasion if you wish to avoid arriving at some very wrong conclusion. Married and engaged couples, and those whose courtship is progressing satisfactorily, might find it helpful to remember that "goodwill is the mightiest practical force in the universe" and it always pays to display it.

If a woman and June 2 is your birthday, it might be well for you to welcome constructive criticism and overcome any tendency you might have to resent it. In looking after the interests of others, do not become so absorbed that you will overlook safeguarding your own. There may be need for you to be reminded of the old saying, "nothing ventured, nothing gained," so should you be inclined to be ultra conservative when it comes to taking a chance that might mean the bettering of your condition, do not let a sense of fear dominate you. As a purchasing agent, accountant, secretary, stenographer, librarian, business executive, broker, demonstrator, artist, musician, writer, professional entertainer, singer, actress, dancer, milliner, modiste, beautician, specialty shop operator, trained nurse, teacher, or through work necessary for the successful carrying out of your country's war aims you evidently will find yourself facing a most promising future. There are many indications that conditions are conducive for your matrimonial hopes and plans turning out successfully.

The child born on June 2 seldom lacks the qualities that will make it popular with its close companions and are apt to prove most helpful in its achieving a high degree of success. An ability to memorize quickly and to remember what it learns often aids it to make rapid progress both during its school days and its entrance upon a chosen career.

If a man and June 2 is your natal day, never permit yourself to get a superiority complex if you would retain the advantages you are apt to gain. Through the development of a pleasing personality and gracious manners you should make many friends and attain a high degree of success. As a public official, political leader, journalist, author, lecturer, inventor, educator, scientist, clergyman, physician, lawyer, engineer, business executive, salesman, contractor, builder, manufacturer, merchant, financier, agriculturist, horticulturist, or through being in some branch of your country's military, air or naval services you should achieve an enviable reputation and your financial independence.

Stevens to Return

OTTAWA, June 1 (CP).—Hon. H. H. Stevens, of Vancouver, who came to Ottawa at the opening of the present session as director of research for the Conservative members of Parliament, will discontinue those duties on June 15 and return to his private business in Vancouver, it was learned here today.

Mr. Stevens formed the Reconstruction party in the 1935 elections after he had retired from the Conservative Government, where he had been trade minister. In 1942 he ran in the Progressive Conservative convention for the national leadership, but was defeated.

Glancing Over Sport —

By JOE DELAHUNTY

IN THE MAIL BAG

Dear Joe and Sid — Don't be alarmed when you get this letter from me. I really did have the best of intentions to write you months ago, but you know how easily put off letters are.

First off it was very good of you to give me the "splash" you did when I was commissioned last December. Time has gone by very quickly for me over here because, for the most part, I have been pretty busy on courses, etc. Before I was posted to Army Headquarters over here I used to spend a lot of my time with R.A.F. squadrons and a few R.C.A.F., but now I don't get around as much as I would like to.

Had lunch with Sonny Walker yesterday in London, and he's looking very well. We were discussing the good old days when May 24 at Royal Athletic Park really meant a lot to us. Those memories mean a lot to us now, but I guess it will be quite a while yet before we can go up there for a ball game. I haven't touched a ball so long now, I don't think I could peg to second in a dozen chances.

Have seen the Rangers play a few games while on leave in Scotland, and must admit they are a pretty neat club, even though several of the players are in the services. A team that I have seen several times is Arsenal, and I like their style of play very much. Even though the crowds are "rationed" they still pack 'em in the parks. A recent game, for example, between Arsenal and Charlton had 75,000. What a headache to a poor old secretary!

Dad usually sends me the latest gossip about some of the games he has seen at home, and from his remarks I gather you are having some good games.

Please give my regards to any of the sporting clan that adorn your office at night, and all the best for now. Cheerio!

"AXEL" KINNEAR.

HE EXPLAINS THE SITUATION

One who signs himself "J.B." says "I read with interest the other day your article about the fellow who has owned 50 or 60 putters in the past five years and still hasn't found a weapon he is able to putt with. I'm not in that class because, although I've been golfing for twice that long I've never owned as many as 60 clubs in my life. I've been using the same putter for the past six years and it is still good enough for me. My trouble this year is shanking. Can you tell me what to do about that?"

For a guy who knows as little about the fine points of golf as your correspondent, we see where we are rapidly getting into hot water. The next thing we know someone will probably be asking us how to play the 19th hole at his favorite course. However, at the risk of being tossed in the nearest creek by thoroughly capable district golf instructors as Bill Dennis, Bill Fox, Bob Williamson and the rest, we'll pass along to "J.B." some information we heard the other day.

Our informant claims that he was troubled with shanking for so long that he was about ready to give up the game when all of a sudden he discovered a cure.

"In seeking the reason for why I was shanking," said this individual, "I discovered that many of the afflicted — including myself — were swayers. Getting the weight over to the right sometimes creates a swaying tendency that persists even down to pitches. I decided to attempt to purposely sway forward on the back swing. The cure, as far as I'm concerned, was immediate and complete. What I think really happens is that instead of a forward away, as it feels, a correction is effected and the body held still, leaving the left arm pulling relaxed wrists into the ball.

"I'm glad now that I had the miserable experiences that I did because I am enjoying a new zest for the game with the crisper feel and better accuracy and distance with all the clubs. The remedy may sound too simple for consideration, but many seemingly complicated problems are found to have easy solutions. I think it unnecessary for many afflicted in this way to go through long periods of suffering."

We might add (and we discovered it in a golf book) that the late Alex Smith, undoubtedly one of America's great golf teachers, used to cure his pupils of shanking by telling them to turn the toe of the club in at impact. "Keep your body back until the ball has been hit," was Smith's advice.

On research we further discovered that the malignant malady of shanking stems from various causes.

(1) It is sometimes caused by standing too near the ball, (2) again it may be due to reaching out too far for the ball, (3) getting the hands through ahead of the club is another source of socketing.

Aside to "J.B."—After you have read this we still suggest that you go and see your own pro.

YOUNG PITCHER ENLISTED

BROOKLYN, June 1 (AP).—Calvin Coolidge McLish, 18-year-old Oklahoma City school boy who pitched his first National League victory last night, passed his physical examination today and was accepted for service in the United States Navy. He will remain with the Brooklyn Dodgers until called.

Dick Barrett Is Hitting Star

Hits Triple and Double to Lead Phillies To 8-7 Victory Over Cincinnati Reds

NATIONAL LEAGUE

PHILADELPHIA, June 1 (AP).—Led by Pitcher Dick Barrett who hit a triple and a double to drive in four runs and score one himself, the Phillies knocked off the Cincinnati Reds, 8-7, today before 4,306 fans at Shibe Park.

Barrett had to be relieved in the ninth. When the Reds nicked him for two runs and put the tying marker on base. But Bill Lee held the Reds hitless for the remainder of the inning.

RIP SEWELL WINS GAME

BROOKLYN, June 1 (AP).—Home runs by Babe Dahlgren and Johnny Barrett carried Rip Sewell and the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 2-1 decision over the Brooklyn Dodgers today. It was the seventh victory of the National League season for Sewell.

Curt Davis gave up only four blows, Shortstop Frank Zak getting the remaining pair. Davis was lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth and Bob Chipman twirled the hitless ninth.

Dixie Walker was stopped by Sewell after connecting safely in 13 straight games.

HOMER WINS GAME

NEW YORK, June 1 (AP).—Danny Gardella's fourth home run with Bill Voiselle on base brought the New York Giants their sixth straight National League victory as they swept the Chicago series by defeating the Cubs, 5-3, before 13,265 customers tonight.

It was a nip-and-tuck 3-3 battle between Paul Erickson and Voiselle until Gardella's home run broke the tie in the seventh.

EVEN SPLIT

BOSTON, June 1 (AP).—Right-hander George Munger gave the Boston Braves three hits and went out with a dislocated finger during the eighth inning today when the St. Louis Cardinals gained an even split in the four-game National League series with a 4-2 triumph.

Munger, who chalked up his sixth victory, was injured when he tried to stop Dee Phillips' line drive with none on and none out, and he was relieved by Fred Schmidt, who limited the Braves to one safety during the remainder of the game. Al Javery was the losing pitcher.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

DETROIT, June 1 (AP).—Detroit made a clean sweep of the four-game series with the Yankees, taking today's finale, 4-3, in 16 innings.

A double by Don Ross scored Jimmy Outlaw with the winning run after two men had been retired.

Hal Newhouser entered the game in the ninth for the Tigers and pitched scoreless ball for seven innings to notch his eighth victory. Atley Donald matched Newhouser for seven innings, but faltered in the 16th, to be charged with his fourth loss.

BROWNS WALLOPED

ST. LOUIS, June 1 (AP).—St. Louis Browns were walloped by the Washington Senators today, 11-5, but took over first place in the American League by two percentage points from the New York Yankees.

The slumping Yankees who have played fewer games than the Browns, slipped out of a tie for the lead by losing again to the Detroit Tigers.

Stan Spence tied a major league record by pounding out six hits in six times at bat. His heavy hitting, including a home run, led the Senators' attack on four Browns' pitchers.

OAKLAND, Cal., June 1 (AP).—Pinch Hitter Jimmy Herrera lined out an infield single to score Chet Rosenlund and give the Oakland Acorns a 2 to 1 win over Hollywood in a 12-inning Pacific Coast League game tonight. Rosenlund had hit a Texas Leaguer and advanced on a double by Les Scarsella. Dolph Camilli was intentionally walked to load the bases. Herrera stepped up in place of Sam Fenech. His winning blow was between shortstop and third.

WESTERN HORSES FAIL

TORONTO, June 1 (CP).—The only Western horses competing in today's Thorncliffe races at Woodbine finished out of the money.

Paddigoeasy, owned by Dr. L. H. Appleby, of Vancouver, in contention early in the first race, failed to threaten in the home stretch and finished in fourth place back of Dust Cap, who was a length behind Maelo Bird. Carless Knight won by more than three lengths.

Another of Dr. Appleby's horses, Alpine Astarte, ridden by Jockey Rank Holyday in the five-furlong event for two-year-old maidens, was far back. Checker Hall won the race handily.

Track Meeting Set for June 7

Archie McKinnon, the busy physical director at the Y.M.C.A., sponsor of the inter-high school meet to be held at the Victoria High School grounds at 3:30 on Wednesday June 7, wishes to remind all the schools that the entries close on Saturday at noon.

Victoria High, Oak Bay High, Mount Douglas High and St. Margaret's School have already notified the "Y" that they will be competing.

The McLennan-McFeeley Trophy goes to the winning team each year and the trophy was won last year by the Royal Canadian Naval College team. It was a splendid meet last year, with only half a point separating first and second place teams, and the committee is looking forward to an even more exciting meet this year.

Edmonton Meet On

EDMONTON, June 1 (CP).—Manager Charles E. Wilson of the Edmonton Exhibition Association, said here last night Edmonton's 1944 race meet "definitely" is scheduled for August 5-16. Mr. Wilson had just returned from Winnipeg, where he closed negotiations with R. James Speers, secretary of the Prairie Thoroughbred Breeders and Racing Association, which controls Western racing.

Opening race will start at 5 p.m. M.D.T. every day except Saturday, when a 2 p.m. starting time will be in effect.

The R.C.A.F., now occupying the East End Fair Grounds, granted permission for use of the track about a month ago and a few days later the city council voted in favor of the scheme.

CRICKETER DIES

VANCOUVER, June 1 (CP).—Funeral services will be held tomorrow for James Rigby, 75, well-known cricketer, who died yesterday.

LONDON (CP).—A "clippie" on a London bus, Rose Clare Bennett, has won an overtime case from the London Passenger Transport Board to the tune of $1.75. She claimed overtime because her bus was late finishing its run. The board claimed that the driver-clippie team had slowed down the bus deliberately.

Eagles and Flyers Will Meet Tonight

Holding down third place in the McGavin Cup standings, Manager Jack Stratton's Eagles will return to Royal Athletic Park this evening to oppose the Royal Canadian Air Force in a senior baseball league fixture at 6:30 o'clock.

Young Bobby Prior, with a win and a tie to his credit in two starts, will go to the hill against the Flyers. Funk, who has been doing a good job back of home plate for the lodgemen, will complete the battery.

Surphlis or Barlow will do the hurling for the airmen, with Billy Adshead, smart backstopper, doing the receiving.

Saturday's double bill at the Caledonia Avenue ball lot will bring together the Navy and V.M.D. at 2:30 o'clock, with Army and Eagles hooking up in the nightcap at 6:30 o'clock.

R.C.A.F. and Douglas Tire Win Victories

In last night's Lower Island Senior "A" Fastball League double bill played at Athletic Park, the R.C.A.F. defeated Tuckers, 4-0, and the Douglas Tire won their third straight game by edging out the Navy 3-2. Both games were closely fought and had the spectators on edge throughout the 14 innings played by the four clubs.

The Air Force scored all their runs during the fourth frame in the first game against the Cafemen, and were in the driver's seat from then on. The big rally came when they had the bags loaded through two hits and a walk on two errors and a wild pitch.

Ossie Degrow on the mound for the Flyers pitched winning ball, limiting his opponents to three hits, one walk, and struck out ten.

Score by innings:		R.	H.	E.
Tommy Tuckers	000 000 0	0	3	3
R.C.A.F.	000 400 0	4	7	1

Batteries—Bryant and Kennedy; Degrow and Greenberg.

In the second game the Tiremen scored a run in the third on an error and a wild pitch, and two more in the fourth on three hits and one base on balls. In the last half of the same frame the Navy got both their runs on two walks and the same number of hits.

It was a tough game for Bud Ross, on the hill for the Sailors, to lose, as he held a wide edge over his opposing chucker, Taylor, only allowing three hits. He whiffed ten and gave five bases on balls. If his mates behind had played a little tighter ball in the field he might have come through with a win. In the last inning the Tars had the tying run on second with only one out, but they failed to bring him around.

The Douglas Tire were quick to take advantage of the breaks and worked hard for their victory.

Prior to the first game a two-minute silence was held in honor of the late Charlie Trevor, captain of the Spruce Products team, who recently passed away. Both teams lined up in the centre of the diamond together with the two umpires.

Score by innings:		R.	H.	E.
Douglas Tire	001 200 0	3	3	0
Navy	000 200 0	2	5	3

Batteries—Taylor and Standwick; Ross and Jackson.

Umpires—Art Bird and Art Smith.

R.C.N. LINE-UP

The following team will represent the Royal Canadian Navy against Five C's at Macdonald Park on Saturday at 2:30 p.m.: Gillman, Taylor, Chipman, Fox, Jackson, Bell-Irving, Barr, Peacock, Webb, Woods, Heaton and Dick.

PIRATES BUY PITCHER

PITTSBURGH, June 1 (AP).—The Pirates today announced the purchase at an undisclosed price of left-hander Fred Ostermueller from Syracuse of the International League, bringing the Pittsburgh pitching staff to ten. He will join the Pirates tomorrow.

Pensive Choice For the Stakes

Derby and Preakness Winner Is Favorite To Win $50,000 Race on Saturday

NEW YORK, June 1 (AP).—Pensive, winner of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, will be the favorite to complete the turf's triple crown in the $50,000 Belmont Stakes on Saturday, but at least five other three-year-olds intend to give Warren Wright's chestnut an argument.

Chief among the quintette who'll attempt to match strides with the son of Hyperion in the 76th running of the mile and one-half classic is George D. Widener's combination of Platter and Who Goes There.

Neither Pensive nor Platter has raced since the Preakness, but both have been training in fine shape. In his final distance workout yesterday Platter traveled the Belmont route in 2:36 2-5 and Pensive went a mile and one-eighth in 1:56 3-4.

While the two favorites were confining their conditioning to morning workouts, Who Goes There, son of Challenger 2nd and After Dark, jumped into the picture by scoring an easy triumph in the Withers mile. A shift in riders is expected to place Johnny Longden, contract rider for Widener, on Who Goes There, and Eddie Arcaro on Platter. Conn McCreary again will ride Pensive.

William Ziegler, Jr.'s Bounding Home, Crispin Oglebay's Boy Knight and Mrs. H. C. Phipps' Free Lance are expected to complete the field.

Y.M.C.A. Swimming

Last Wednesday evening at the Y.M.C.A. pool was a real busy one. Members of both the junior and senior swimming clubs were put through their paces by Coach Dan McGowan, formerly of Banff Springs Hotel and the Winnipeg Winter Club. The club members are taking the Canadian swimming championships quite seriously and are looking forward to a busy competitive season. They are swimming against the Vancouver Amateur Swimming Club in Vancouver, June 10. The Canadian championships are being held in Vancouver on July 20, 21 and 22, and the Kelowna meet is being held on August 2 and 3.

Coaches Dan McGowan and Archie McKinnon are going to team up and try to have the kids in good shape. McGowan gave special attention to the backstroke last evening and the arms as the major propulsive power in swimming. Relaxation, continuity of pulling power and water slippage were tried by the members, and through McGowan's careful presentation and patience the swimmers made rapid progress.

All members are requested to be on hand next Wednesday in the "Y" pool and be prepared for a good workout.

JUST READING A LETTER (you'll pardon us) . . . "It was such a lovely day, and I wished the flight took an hour instead of—just 30 minutes . . . I looked down when we passed over HEANEY'S WAREHOUSE, and wondered if you were looking up at me (vain, eh?)"—Aren't women silly dopes?
A BLOW-BY-BLOW DESCRIPTIOON of this bedroom suite takes too many rounds, but it's a knockout for $95. Has big landscape tilt mirror . . . decrt. walnut.
PARDON US, again . . . Page 3 . . . "and I hope you're helping Auntie Grace with the dishes, and do be careful riding that put-put — remember you're not a kid any longer . . . better leave it in the shed if it rains—Bye now . . . Pots and Pans."

Greta Garbo May Come to Province

VANCOUVER, June 1 (CP).—Greta Garbo, famous Swedish film star, may come to British Columbia this Summer to make a picture based on the exploits of the Norwegian merchant marine, Hercules Worsoe, Norwegian consul here, announced tonight. "The Commandos Strike at Dawn," an earlier film on the Norwegian war effort, was produced on Vancouver Island.

Not to Participate In De Gaulle Talks

LONDON, June 2 (Friday) (CP).—It is learned here that the United States will not participate in the coming conference between Gen. Charles de Gaulle and British Government leaders, and the disclosure stirred fresh comment on the French situation in London newspapers today.

An Algiers dispatch indicated the leader of the French Committee of National Liberation desired that Washington be represented if he is to make the trip from Algiers to London.

The American decision was learned amid indications that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will have the final word on problems of administrating the liberated areas of France and with whom the Allies are to deal.

A demand that the United States clear up her "ambiguous" attitude toward De Gaulle was voiced by The Daily Mail, which said "the time has come when we feel entitled to ask for a clear understanding."

Wants Subsidy

OTTAWA, June 1 (CP).—T. L. Church (P.C., Toronto Broadview) said tonight in the Commons that the Federal Government should subsidize the building of low-cost homes and the delivery of fuel.

Mr. Church said such subsidies would be of more help to the people of the country than subsidies on some foods and other products.

NEW HOSPITAL

OTTAWA, June 1 (CP).—Tenders for the construction of the proposed new soldiers' hospital at Sunnybrook, near Toronto, are expected to be called by the end of this month, the Works Department said today in a return for T. L. Church (P.C., Toronto Broadview).

Island Boards of Trade to Confer

Associated Boards of Trade of Vancouver Island will have eight resolutions from member boards to consider when it holds its annual meeting at Nanaimo on June 21. G. Hamilton Harman, vice-president of the associated boards and president of Victoria Chamber of Commerce, said yesterday that all 12 member boards were expected to be represented.

G. A. Dobbie, president, and D. L. Morrell, secretary, of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, Montreal, who will be in Victoria on June 18 and 19, will be invited to the Nanaimo meeting, Mr. Harman said.

Four of the eight resolutions are from Duncan. They suggest that memorial tablets be placed in every Empire school and university in memory of airmen who took part in the Battle of Britain, and that Premier Hart be asked to head a movement for this purpose; that the Federal Government urge that the United Nations supervise the German educational system after the war; that the Provincial Government be asked to take steps to conserve Winter water on the Lower Island for use in the dry season; that the Provincial Government, when considering recommendations of the forest commission, study the interests of ordinary residents, farmers, tourists and those who cater for them, as well as the lumber industry. Duncan suggests that valuable deciduous trees be planted on the Island.

From Tofino Board of Trade come two resolutions—one urging postwar repatriation of all Japanese in Canada to Japan, and the other urging construction of a road from Sproat Lake to Tofino, as the most important postwar road work on Vancouver Island.

Port Alberni board urges the hard-surfacing of the highway through Cathedral Grove this year.

Malahat board states that the policy of large lumber companies is to concentrate mill operations and close small mills, and proposes that the A.B.T.V.I. executive present a brief to the forest commission protesting the closing of small mills, encouraging such mills near timber stands, urging selective logging and opposing general burning of slash.

The policy of the Victoria chamber is to send no resolutions. Mr. Harman expressed the hope yesterday that as many Victoria members as possible would go.

A.B.T.V.I. president is R. N. Carey, Courtenay, and secretary-treasurer is M. C. Ironside, Nanaimo.

City Police Court

Pleading guilty in city police court yesterday to a charge of dangerous driving, Barney Dalman, young R.C.N.V.R. rating, was fined $50 and prohibited from driving for three months. Police officers testified that he drove through a stop sign at Store and Johnson Streets, and crashed his automobile into the Johnson Street bridge on Wednesday evening, doing considerable damage to the car. On a second charge of failing to produce a driver's licence, Dalman was fined $5.

Robert Reynolds, an R.N. rating, was committed for trial on a charge of committing a statutory offence at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing. Accused, not represented by counsel, reserved his defence.

Stoker Gordon B. Shaw, R.C.N. (R.), conducted his own defence and won a dismissal on a charge of dangerous driving, laid following an accident on Dallas Road on May 21, in which five other cars were involved. In his defence, Shaw testified, along with his companion, that a blowout in his left front tire was responsible for the accident.

Seven motorists paid parking fines of $2.50 each, and one motorist was fined $15 for speeding.

A man was fined $5 for an offence against a public health by-law, and another man had his bail of $25 estreated when he failed to answer to a charge of being intoxicated.

Civil Defence Leader To Speak Here June 9

Brig.-Gen. Alexander Ross, C.M.G., K.C., D.S.O. and Bar, V.D., A.D.C., director of Civil Defence for Canada, will address civil defence units in the City Council chamber on June 9 at 8 o'clock in the evening.

His talk will deal with matters pertaining to civil defence. Acting Mayor Archie Wills will be chairman of the meeting.

General Ross is widely known for his work on behalf of ex-servicemen and has devoted much time to the building up and improvement of air raid precautions and home defence services.

CJVI Tonight

R. W. MAYHEW, M.P.

In keeping with its policy of public service, Broadcasting Station CJVI will present tonight the first in a series of programs entitled "Report From Parliament Hill." These informative broadcasts will be heard each Friday evening at 8:15 and will feature Mr. R. W. Mayhew, Victoria's representative in the Canadian House of Commons. In arranging these weekly reports, the Island Broadcasting Company felt that Mr. Mayhew was best qualified to tell Victorians what their Government is doing and to report items of particular interest to CJVI listeners. For his part, Mr. Mayhew was more than willing to take part in this series of non-partisan, strictly informative broadcasts.

"Report From Parliament Hill" will be transcribed by the Victoria member in CJVI's Ottawa recording studios and will be flown west for broadcasting each Friday.

Grave issues and important responsibilities face us all today and it is therefore important that Canadians be kept well informed on all public issues. It is for that express purpose that CJVI presents "Report From Parliament Hill." ***

Take No Stand On Ice Arena

Victoria Chamber of Commerce yesterday decided to postpone taking a stand for or against a publicly-owned ice arena in Victoria, pending a meeting today between a recently-formed citizens' committee and the City Council.

Some members spoke in favor of a municipally-owned arena, and others expressed the opinion that past experience had shown that only an individual's initiative could bring about construction of one. All agreed that a rink was needed here.

Different opinions were expressed on the question of having a combined arena and auditorium. Some members believed that such a building would be unprofitable. Others pointed out that an arena could be easily converted for Summer use as an auditorium.

It was stated that the City Council had made a $6,500 concession to have a rink installed at the Willows, recently destroyed by fire. Discussion followed a report by W. J. Clark on a meeting on the arena question on May 27.

June is to be a busy month, George I. Warren, secretary, said, announcing the following events: Visit of J. C. Stead, Ottawa, national parks publicity officer, June 12; visit of 30 members of Edmonton Chamber of Commerce, June 15; visit of G. A. Dobbie, president, and D. L. Morrell, secretary, of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, June 19; annual meeting, Associated Boards of Trade of Vancouver Island, Nanaimo, June 21; meeting of Pacific Northwest Trade Association in Victoria, June 26 and 27.

Mr. Stead will address a joint meeting of Victoria and Vancouver Island Publicity Bureau and a service club. The Canadian Chamber of Commerce executives will be guests at a luncheon. The Edmonton visitors will probably visit shipyards here.

MEMBERS TO GIVE VIEWS ON PRIVATE ENTERPRISE

The Chamber of Commerce decided to name committees to set out its views on private enterprise as requested by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, and to confer with Hon. E. C. Carson, Minister of Trade and Industry, on the policy of asking tourists to delay visits to British Columbia till after the war.

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce is seeking material for a manual to be distributed for public information.

The decision to see Mr. Carson followed discussion of a report that Vancouver City Council had decided to ask the Provincial Travel Bureau to tell people not to visit British Columbia now. Members thought that Up-Island resorts still needed visitors. On a motion, the Chamber of Commerce dissociated itself from the Vancouver Council's statement.

Members approved Victoria City Council's arrangements to extend a tax agreement with the C.P.R. regarding the Empress Hotel.

Cecil Annett was announced as a new member.

CATTLE EXPERT TO SPEAK

W. Davies, Federal Department of Agriculture, specialist in charge of artificial insemination to improve dairy herds, will speak to cattle breeders and dairymen in the K. of P. Hall on Broad Street at 10:30 o'clock next Monday morning.

Two Lions Relate Their Experiences

Lion G. P. Thackeray and Lion Leo Evenden gave autobiographical sketches before the Lions Club at the regular luncheon meeting held in Spencer's dining-room yesterday. Lt.-Cmdr. E. T. Simmons, D.S.O., D.F.C., was unable to attend the luncheon to give an address as scheduled.

Mr. Thackeray's story began in Gravesend, England, where he was born, emigrating to Canada at an early age. In Manitoba he worked for Judge Lennox, then he learned mechanics, and by dint of economy earned a trip to Florida. After spending several months there, he went on to Chicago and Detroit, where he built motors for one car manufacturer. In 1938 he took a course at General Motors Technical Institute, Flint, Michigan, and since then, Mr. Thackeray has been associated with Wilson & Cabeldu, in Victoria.

Leo Evenden told of his early years in Ontario and on a Saskatchewan farm, "where there was no railroad, no Sunday, and not much else." Later he went to school in Winnipeg, and went regularly to Scout camps, which he recommended to all youths. From a term as bank clerk, he went into the accounting department of Hudson's Bay Company, and worked in Yorkton and Edmonton branches as credit manager. He was very happy to be transferred to Victoria, Mr. Evenden stated.

Both speakers were thanked by President J. E. Fuller. Guests introduced at the luncheon included J. Edmonds and Harry Sayers, of Vancouver, and Walter Cullimore, of Victoria.

During the luncheon Frank L. Tupman led the club in community singing, accompanied by Walter Rothe at the piano. Their efforts were heartily applauded. Alec Henderson, Mr. Evenden and Mr. Tupman also sang solo numbers.

Nine Incorporations Listed at Buildings

Of nine companies incorporated during the past week at the Legislative Buildings, eight were Vancouver firms. The single exception was Interior Building Supply, Ltd., of Rossland, capitalized at $10,000.

The newly incorporated Vancouver firms, with their capitalization, follow: Pulp Wood Products, Ltd., $100,000; General Plastics Products, Ltd., $10,000; Jones Construction Co., Ltd., $50,000; Lady Gaye, Ltd., $25,000; North-Western Supply Co., Ltd., $10,000; Thermotex Insulators, Ltd., $10,000; Young's Realty Holdings, Ltd., $10,000; Rixon Court, Ltd., $30,000.

There was one extra-provincial registration, that of Commonwealth Construction Co., Ltd., of Winnipeg, which has its British Columbia head office at Vancouver. Its capitalization was given as $150,000 and 1,500 common shares of no par value.

Pensioners to Meet

Victoria Aged Pensioners' Association, Inc., will meet in the schoolroom of First Baptist Church at 2:30 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon. The speaker will be Mrs. A. McInnes, wife of Major McInnes, of the Salvation Army. Loud speaking equipment will be installed for the benefit of those hard of hearing.

City and District

New Society—Only new society registered at the Legislative Buildings during the past week was the Woodlands and Sunshine District Ratepayers' Association, Vancouver.

Call Tenders—Tenders are being called by the Public Works Department for construction of a schoolhouse at the Mental Hospital, New Westminster. Tenders must be in by noon on June 22.

Appointed Coroner—Inspector H. H. Cronkhite, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Lower Post, Cassiar District, has been appointed a coroner, according to a Government order.

Land Sales—Sales of 17 parcels of city-owned land were approved at a meeting of the lands committee yesterday, and will be placed before the City Council this afternoon for final ratification.

No Word Yet—No reply has been received yet on the proposal by Hon. R. L. Maitland, K.C., Attorney-General, to the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, that ammunition should be issued to hunters this Fall on a ration basis.

Motorists Fined — One motorist was fined $10 in Saanich police court yesterday for exceeding the speed limit in a school zone, and a second motorist was fined $5 for failing to stop at a stop sign.

Two Commissioners—Appointed as commissioners for taking affidavits, according to the British Columbia Gazette, are John G. Ritchie, clerk at the Government Agency, Merritt, and Harry O. English, vice-principal of the Provincial Normal School, Victoria.

No Appeal—Hon. R. L. Maitland, K.C., Attorney-General, was advised by telegram from Ottawa yesterday that the Supreme Court of Canada had dismissed the motion of Alfred Hall, of Vancouver, for leave to appeal his conviction. He was found guilty on statutory charges and was sentenced to a jail term and lashes.

Prepaid Taxes—City property owners have paid $654,109.84 so far this year in prepaid taxes, the figure being $29,579.10 higher than for the same period last year, G. A. Okell, assessor-collector, announced yesterday. Payments on account of taxes in arrears since January 1 totaled $46,037.93, as against $46,218.68 for the corresponding period in 1943.

Improvement District—Under provisions of the Water Act, the Bella Coola Waterworks District has been proclaimed an improvement district. R. C. Edwards, Bella Coola, has been appointed returning officer for the first election of trustees. The proclamation establishing the district appears in the current issue of the British Columbia Gazette.

Building Permits—H. F. Young, 110 Eberts Street, was issued a permit by the city building inspector's department yesterday to construct a four-room dwelling at 106 Eberts Street at a cost of $2,950, and Victoria Gas Co., Ltd., took out a permit covering alterations providing for lockers and lunchroom facilities at 512 Pembroke Street at a cost of $1,375.

Provided $500,000 — When estimates were before the Provincial Legislature earlier this year it was stated revision of civil service salaries was under way, but the work of the committee in charge had not been completed. The Legislature, preparing for the revision announced this week, provided $500,000 in the Provincial Secretary's estimates to meet the anticipated increases, which were announced on Wednesday.

Supports Suggestion—Support for the City Council's suggestion that the Gorge Park be made available as a site for a military hospital was contained in a letter received at the City Hall yesterday from the Victoria and District Zone Council, Canadian Legion. The communication stated: "This council desires to advise you that it heartily endorses the action of the City Council in its generous offer to the Dominion Government for such a laudable purpose."

Committee Report — In a report prepared for submission at today's meeting of the City Council, the city's representatives on the executive of the British Columbia Agricultural Association will recommend that the building inspector and city solicitor, in conjunction with W. H. Mearns, secretary, B.C.A.A., thoroughly investigate the condition of the buildings and grounds at the Willows and report with a recommendation on what alterations, repairs and improvement work, in their opinion, should be carried out by the Department of National Defence before the present lease with the city is terminated.

Big Increase Shown In City Land Sales

Showing a marked increase over those of last year, city land sales up to May 31 totaled $82,700.15, with 193 parcels being disposed of, lands department officials announced yesterday. In 1943 the city completed 83 sales with a total value of $21,985.

May sales for this year amounted to $17,935, as compared with $4,725 for the same month in 1943. Sixty-five sales were made in the month just closed, and 13 sales were completed in May, 1943.

Cumulative cash receipts for the five-month period amounted to $94,269 this year, as compared with $48,109 in 1943. Cash receipts for May totaled $28,353, as against $11,411 for the same month last year.

Radio Is to Salute Y.M.C.A. Centennial

Salutations and congratulations will be bestowed upon the Y.M.C.A. on the organization's 100th anniversary by radio stations across the continent. Programmes commemorating the centennial include such famous radio personalities as Bob Hope, Kate Smith, Fred Allen and Fred Waring.

During the week of June 4 to 11, hundreds of messages and programmes will be heard across the airways telling of the services of the world-wide association.

A half hour programme, with a world premiere of symphony written for the occasion, will be heard next Sunday at noon. This programme will be played by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

"Comrades in Arms" and "Canadian Cavalcade" are two of the series of broadcasts which will be carried by station CJVI.

Farmers' Meetings

Annual district conventions of Farmers' Institutes throughout British Columbia will be held during June. The Department of Agriculture announced yesterday that the dates would be:

Okanagan-Shuswap, District G, Revelstoke, June 3; West Kootenay, District F, Robson, in early June; Kamloops, District D, Kamloops, June 17; Nechaco, District C, McBride, June 19-20; Skeena and Bulkley, District B, Francis Lake, June 22; Cariboo, District H, Williams Lake, June 27.

Harbor Terminal For Planes Out

The City Council was advised yesterday by letter from E. R. R. Field, superintendent, British Columbia division, Canadian Pacific Air Lines, Ltd., that the proposal to use the Inner Harbor as a base for the Victoria-Vancouver service of company has been thoroughly investigated and found impractical at the present time.

Mr. Field added: "In arriving at this decision, all consideration was given to the safety of the operation and convenience to the public. It was felt that operations from the inner part of the harbor would be dangerous due to the confined space and a considerable amount of water traffic.

"It would be possible to operate in the mouth of the harbor, were it not for the fact that very heavy swells and rough water are often found there. An operation carried out from the mouth of the harbor would be forced to cancel a great number of trips due to the condition of the water, which would throw the whole operation off schedule and result in a very poor and undependable service to the public. An operation from this part of the harbor would be ideal if the mouth of the harbor was protected by a breakwater."

Was Annual Visitor

Word was received here yesterday that Prof. W. C. Ferguson, an annual visitor to Victoria, had passed away at Pointe Au Baril, Georgian Bay. He was a professor in methods of teaching modern languages at the University of Toronto. He is survived by his wife, at Toronto, and a sister at Hamilton. C. A. Griffiths, Hall Road, and F. W. Laing, Ormond Street, Victoria, are cousins of the deceased.

SATURN ICE-BOUND

The temperature of the planet Saturn is estimated at 238 degrees below zero.

Says Alberta's Debt Reduced

Social Credit Government in Alberta has lessened the province's debt by some $18,000,000 and led the Dominion in free, province-wide care for maternity, tuberculosis and cancer cases, although they have not put into effect the principles to which they were committed, Hon. Solon Low, recently-elected head of the National Social Credit Association and Provincial Treasurer and Minister of Education in Alberta, said yesterday at a press conference in the Empress Hotel. It was Mr. Low's first appearance since he came here two weeks ago for an enforced rest.

Mr. Low said that since he had taken the reins in the treasury of that province he had had to deal with the problem of meeting the interest on $120,000,000 of the provincial debt held by bondholders. Alberta's first Social Credit Government summarily cut the interest to 2.44 per cent, against the protest of bondholders, and is now hoping for a satisfactory compromise.

"For the past six years we have sought to refund $120,000,000, in the hands of the public, on a plan satisfactory to public and bondholders. I think there is a chance to compromise on a reasonable basis," he stated. Due to careful management and "buoyant revenue" Alberta was now in a good position financially and therefore could hope to do a refunding job at a slightly higher rate of interest than the 2.44 now being paid, he said.

"We are now in a position that we could rehabilitate our debt on a sound basis and pay it off," he asserted.

SAYS PAID OFF SEVEN MILLIONS

Summarizing the financial position, Mr. Low said, "When I took over in 1937, the net funded and unfunded debt was $158,000,000; now today it is $140,000,000. We have paid off seven million to the banks and nearly seven million savings certificates besides smaller amounts."

Commenting on the financial position of Edmonton, which like Victoria has had to consider refunding, he stated that city had done very well and was refunding $10,000,000 of the civic debt at 4 to 4.75 per cent.

Mr. Low said all mothers in Alberta received free hospitalization, resulting in better prenatal and postnatal care and lowered infant mortality. Municipalities had also been relieved of the cost of tuberculosis patients, and cancer cases were similarly treated. A second provincial sanatorium would soon be built at Edmonton, he stated. "I believe we have high priority for this project and hope to start it almost immediately."

Social Credit was a philosophy of life, he explained, not only a monetary reform. Initial step in a social credit era would be setting up of a Dominion finance committee free from political interference, which would hand over revenues to the province; such grants being based on producing power and need.

Asked if experience in governing Alberta had prepared the party for Federal leadership, Mr. Low replied: "We are infinitely wiser than in 1935. Men who learned in Alberta will be able to do a good job of introducing the same economy at Ottawa. But we don't care who does the job and we won't quarrel with them for leadership."

The national leader said he believed Social Credit should be introduced Federally and that decentralization [illegible] centration of power built up a great state bureaucracy and lost all the elements of democracy, he said.

140 Nominated In Saskatchewan

REGINA, June 1 (CP).—Saskatchewan electors will have a wide choice of candidates when they go to the polls in the Provincial general election June 15.

At the close of nominations today more than 140 candidates had been nominated in 48 of the 49 constituencies which will send 52 members to the Legislature.

The C.C.F. had the largest number of candidates with 50 nominated. The Liberals were next with 49.

The parties, candidates nominated numbered:

Liberals	49
Progressive Conservative	37
C.C.F.	50
Labor-Progressive	2
Others	6
Total	144

One constituency, Athabaska, a northern riding, was unreported, due to telegraphic difficulties, while nominations in Cumberland have been deferred to June 16, with voting June 24.

In the last election six years ago candidates totaled 160.

Premier W. J. Patterson, whose Liberal Government seeks return to office, was nominated in Cannington. Rev. T. C. Douglas, the C.C.F. leader, will contest Weyburn, and R. D. Ramsay, head of the Progressive Conservatives, will be a candidate in Saskatoon City.

There will be at least 31 three-cornered contests and two four-cornered. This compares with 21 and 12 respectively, in the 1933 election.

The Liberals are not opposing Major G. H. Williams, former C.C.F. Provincial Leader, in Wadena, but he will meet opposition from Capt. the Rev. G. R. Cook, army chaplain, Progressive Conservative candidate, and W. E. Rogers, an Independent. Major Williams returned from overseas last week. J. H. Brocklebank, C.C.F. House Leader, will seek re-election in Tisdale.

Eight of Premier Patterson's nine Cabinet ministers are seeking re-election. Hon. J. M. Uhrich, Minister of Health, is not seeking re-election in Rosthern.

Investigate Discovery Of Bones and Skull

QUESNEL, June 1 (CP).—Provincial Police are investigating the discovery of the bones and skull of a man in Nazko area 54 miles south of here.

Police said the bones may be the remains of William Chenall, of Clinton, who came here six years ago on a prospecting trip with a partner named Stewart. They struck out into uninhabited country. Stewart's body was discovered some weeks later, but Chenall was never found.

Charges Spain Still Assisting Germans

LONDON, June 1 (CP).—The Moscow radio, bitterly denouncing Gen. Francisco Franco and "the bloodthirsty hangmen of the Spanish people who now don the cloak of neutrality," charged today that Spain still was helping Germany.

"Franco's signature on the document in which he associated himself with anti-Soviet activities of the Axis has not been annulled," the broadcast said, quoting the newspaper Izvestia.

To Expand Market

DRUMHELLER, Alta., June 1 (CP).—A campaign to expand the market for Canadian coal will be organized at a meeting of representatives of Alberta boards of trade and other interested groups to be held in Calgary on June 28.

First steps in the campaign were taken here today at a conference of delegates from Alberta boards of trade, the United Mine Workers of America, coal operators, and others interested in the industry.

Trousseau Lingerie Needs

A well-balanced trousseau will contain for lingerie necessities the following:

Four slips (three for everyday use and one for "best").

Four nighties. (Cotton would be a wise choice for hot climates.)

Six pairs of panties.

One house-coat. (Every bride will find a use for this.)

One quilted bed-jacket. (This is for breakfast in bed and late reading.)

One warm dressing-gown. (for after bath).

One attractive negligee. (A forgiven extravagance.)

Two girdles. (With careful care these will last a year.)

JEWS AID RUSSIA

LONDON (CP).—British Jews have undertaken to supply Mrs. Winston Churchill's Aid-to-Russia fund with 25 mobile ambulance units at a cost of $225,000.

Sing Sing prison gets its name from the Indian words "ossine ossine," meaning stone upon stone.

Name Labor Liaison Officer

OTTAWA, June 1 (CP).—The Munitions Department announced tonight the appointment of A. E. McMaster, of Vancouver, as its liaison officer with the Labor Department. Mr. McMaster has also been appointed assistant co-ordinator of controls and a member of the Industries Control Board and Canada-United States Production Committee.

Mr. McMaster joined the Munitions Department in 1943 as special assistant to the financial adviser. Later he became associate wood fuel controller, and more recently was named an associate financial adviser.

A native of Perth, Ont., he gained early business experience with the traffic departments of the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific Railways.

After serving with the Canadian Manufacturers' Association he became secretary-treasurer of Port Arthur Shipbuilding Company, and then was associated successively with several British Columbia concerns, Whalen Pulp & Paper Co., Powell River Co., Ltd., and Nootka Wood Products, Ltd., all of Vancouver.

Mr. McMaster organized the Industrial Relations Association of British Columbia, and served the Dominion Government for a year in connection with administering the plan for the disposal of Japanese fishing vessels and real property in that province.

Senate Adjourns

OTTAWA, June 1 (CP).—The Senate adjourned today until June 20. In moving the adjournment Dr. J. H. King, Government leader, said he thought when the Senators returned, parliamentary business in the Commons would be sufficiently advanced for the Senate to sit almost continuously from then until the end of the session in order to deal with it.

Chief Justice Thibaudeau Rinfret, acting as deputy Governor-General, gave royal assent to a number of bills including an interim supply bill providing $46,331,283 for Government services in the next two months, the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Act, an act providing for the renewal of the agreement between the Dominion Government and the city of Ottawa, and an act providing funds for the refunding of Canadian National Railways bonds.

VANCOUVER, June 1 (CP).—J. M. Webster, 37, was sentenced to two years' imprisonment and fined $200 when found guilty in police court today of being in possession of drugs.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police officers said Webster was found in possession of two tablets both of which contained a quantity of morphine.

TAKE IT FROM ME, YOU GET QUICKER, EASIER SHAVES WITH BLUE GILLETTE BLADES

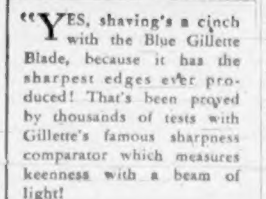

BILL CORUM
— Ace Reporter on Gillette's "Cavalcade of Sports"—says:

"YES, shaving's a cinch with the Blue Gillette Blade, because it has the sharpest edges ever produced! That's been proved by thousands of tests with Gillette's famous sharpness comparator which measures keenness with a beam of light!

"No other blade is as sharp, easy-shaving or long-lasting. It whisks off tough beard clean as a whistle—leaves your face feeling swell."
